Stirs Some Doubt About Nixon

Rockefeller Drive Gains New Momentum In Party

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's feverish drive to stop former Vice President Richard M. Nixon short of a first ballot Republican presidential nomination appears to be picking up measured speed.

With the GOP convention platform committee beginning its public hearings today, there were signs that the New York governor's massive effort was shaking some Nixon delegates away from their moorings.

Nobody could put a finger on it specifically, but there was a growing feeling among early-arriving delegates for next week's convention that Rockefeller, with an expensive, expansive publicity campaign, had stirred up enough doubt about Nixon's ability to win in November that there was no clear certainty of Nixon's nomination.

Dark Horse Possible

In the minds of some of the party's top strategists, however, this didn't necessarily add up to a Rockefeller victory. There was, among other things, an undercurrent of belief that in this uncertain political year some dark horse like Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York City could emerge from extended balloting.

Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., a Rockefeller partisan, said he thought the New York governor was making "significant gains" in his uphill battle against Nixon. Scott predicted that Nixon would fade quickly on the roll calls "if we can get by the first ballot."

GOV. ROCKEFELLER
Drive Nets New Support.

Harley Markham of Idaho, chairman of the convention's hardworking housing division, said in a separate interview he was convinced the publicly uncommitted delegates—who make up a majority of the convention's 1,333 voters at this point—were going to wait around awhile before they made a final decision.

"The one clear impression I get in talking to arriving delegates is that the uncommitted people are going to stay that way for a while to take a look at what's going on and until they can decide which man is most likely to win in November," Markham said.

Uncertainty Noticed

Another party strategist who didn't want his name used said delegates he had talked to were wearing an air of uncertainty that could result in some presently unexpected choice.

Operating against this was the endorsement of Nixon by a group of 140 cabinet and administrative officials from the Dwight D. Eisenhower administration, produced in New York Sunday by the former vice president's camp.

Eisenhower remains a revered name to the Republicans. But how much weight his cabinet officials, ambassadors and others might add to the general's previous endorsement of Nixon was debatable.

Russians Reported On Troop Maneuver Along Border Area

PRAGUE (AP) — Leaders of the Czechoslovak and Soviet Communist parties met today for historic talks near the Soviet border on Russian demands that Czechoslovakia check its independent course down the Communist road.

The official news agency CTK said the talks opened in the Moscow delegation's parked special train at Cierna, a Czechoslovak railroad junction not far from the Soviet border.

A Czechoslovak traveler returning from the Soviet border reported that strong Soviet forces were maneuvering there with tanks and othe heavy equipment.

Other units, which had stayed on in Czechoslovakia after last month's Warsaw Pact maneuvers, were officially announced as having scheduled their departure tonight from the area of Libava in Moravia.

About 40 Czechoslovak leaders, including party leader Alexander Dubcek and 11 members of the party presidium, arrived Sunday night by plane at Kosice, about 45 miles from the Soviet border. They continued by sleeper train to Cierna.

Soviet party leader Leonid I. Brezhnev led the 11-member Soviet Politburo that traveled to Cierna by train. There were two other Russians in the group. Among presidium members was Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, who is considered to favor a more moderate approach to the Czechoslovak leaders.

Repeated Czechoslovak assurances that Prague's ties with Moscow are inviolable so far have failed to impress Soviet leaders.

The talks, which probably will last one or two days, will cover all the issues that have been raised by the Moscow-led five hard-line parties in their "Warsaw letter" earler this month.

2 Other Fighters Downed

Cong Destroy $6 Million In Planes At U.S. Base

SAIGON (AP) — Viet Cong infiltrators in loincloths attacked a U.S. air base today and blew up $6 million worth of planes.

The attack on the Tuy Hoa air base, on the central coast of South Vietnam 295 miles northeast of Saigon, was the third on an American air base in Southeast Asia in three days. It raised U.S. aircraft casualties since last Monday to the unusually high total of 12 planes lost—including nine downed over North or South Vietnam—and four badly damaged.

Air Force officers at Tuy Hoa said about nine Viet Cong got into the base and all were killed. One American was reported wounded.

Mortar Attack Used

Reports from Tuy Hoa said the Viet Cong slipped into the base under cover of a brief mortar and rocket attack shortly after midnight. Firing rocket-propelled grenades and hurling satchel charges, they destroyed two four-engine C130 transport planes and badly damaged an F100 Supersabre fighter-bomber. Several other transports were slightly damaged, U.S. officers said.

Tuy Hoa is the home of the 31st Tactical Fighter Wing, an outfit of about 100 Supersabres. Among its five squadrons are two Air National Guard units which arrived in Vietnam in June, the 188th Tactical Fighter Squadron from New Mexico and the 136th from Niagara Falls, N.Y. Neither unit had any casualties.

On Friday night, infiltrators got into the Udorn air base in northern Thailand and badly damaged two planes, while a rocket attack on the Da Nang air base destroyed one jet fighter-bomber and badly damaged another.

Patrols Increased

The raid at Udorn was the first on one of the six American bases in Thailand, from which 85 per cent of the bombing missions against North Vietnam originate. The U.S. Embassy said defenses at the bases were being strengthened, and patrols around the bases were being enlarged.

Other aircraft losses announced during the weekend included a Navy A4 Skyhawk downed southeast of Vinh, in North Vietnam, and an F100 Supersabre downed off the coast of waterways in North iVetnam's pilot is missing, but the two crewmen of the Supersabre were rescued.

Steel Union Postpones Meeting As Abel And Cooper Hold Talks

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A top level bargaining session of steel labor negotiators today forced a one-day delay in a meeting of the United Steelworkers' Executive Committee.

The 33-man committee had been scheduled to meet this morning, reportedly to consider a secret industry offer, but the session never got started. It was put off until Tuesday.

Union President I. W. Abel sent word that he was tied up with R. Conrad Cooper, chief negotiator for the 11 major steel firms involved in the new contract talks for the nation's basic steelworkers. The top level meeting between Abel and Cooper came as time began running out on the current contract, which expires at midnight Wednesday.

UMW Vice President Joseph P. Molony, who brought word of the renewed talks, told newsmen as he rushed back to Abel's side that "things look better now — they're looking up."

An afternoon meeting of the 600-member Basic Steel Industry Conference, which has the power to accept or reject any industry offer, was still scheduled for this afternoon.

But Paul Hilbert, director of the union's District 15, said that sessions most likely also be delayed to Tuesday.

Molony said Abel and Cooper were meeting in the U.S. Steel Building, which is only a half block from the William Penn Hotel where the bulk of the bargaining has been going on.

Whether there will be a nationwide steel strike Thursday or a settlement along the pattern of the can, aluminum, copper and auto industries is hanging in the balance this week.

The Basic Steel Industry Conference has not only the power to accept or reject an industry offer, but also could order a strike.

Most signs, however, point to tentative agreement with more hard bargaining in the next two days to wrap it up.

Among the optimistic indicators:

—Lack of tough strike talk all across the country, although rank-and-file members authorized a walkout, if needed, by 95 per cent.

—Absence of federal government intervention. Mediators usually show up when talks bog down and a national strike threatens. Since 1937, the government intervened 13 times in steel bargaining.

—Slow action in working out arrangements for orderly shutdown of the steel mills should there be a strike. This expensive cooldown of coke ovens, and the preservation of other costly equipment, usually takes up to 48 hours. It must get started no later than Tuesday.

On the minus side is the threat of wildcat strikes at plants where incentive pay plans are regarded as inadequate. This is one important issue that reportedly is still giving negotiators headaches.

Also Abel and his chief industry counterpart, R. Conrad Cooper, said in a joint weekend statement—their only one during the talks—that they were 'searching for common ground—the basis for settlement— but have not found that basis."

A news blackout has surrounded industrywide talks since they started here June 24, and this has produced much in rumors and little in hard facts.

Gallup Says Nixon Rated Top By GOP

Ex-Vice President Preferred By 60% Of Rank And File

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — The Republican rank and file clearly favors Richard M. Nixon over New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller for the GOP presidential nomination, the Gallup Poll reported Sunday.

Nixon held a 5-2 edge over Rockefeller, with California Gov. Ronald Reagan running a poor third, in the nationwide sampling of Republican voters taken last week.

The former vice president was preferred by 60 per cent of the Republicans polled. Rockefeller was the favorite of 23 per cent, and Reagan was the first choice of 7 per cent.

George Gallup announced this would be the last survey of its kind before the Republican convention at Miami Beach next week.

CIRCLEVILLE, Ohio (AP) — The case of the missing milk cartons has been solved.

For two weeks now, residents of Fairview Ave. have complained to police that their milk hasn't been at the front doorstep.

An elderly man found treading water early this morning in the Ohio River near the Chester Bridge is in "guarded" condition at City Hospital.

Police, meanwhile, are attempting to unravel the mystery of how Edward Shaffer, about 60, of 920 Ansel Rd., Cleveland, ended up in the middle of the river.

They were summoned to the River Rd. this morning shortly before 6 by persons who said they could hear someone calling for help. Lt. Paul Burson and Patrolman J. W. Buckley drove the cruiser to the Broadway wharf, where Buckley also heard the cries.

There was a mist shrouding the area, but the two officers finally saw the man swimming.

The fire department was called and at 6:08 a. m. Firemen Ralph Chapman and Louis Hood took the emergency boat to the scene. Assisted by Burson, they pulled Shaffer from the water about 75 yards downstream from the bridge.

Ray's Lawyer May Have Violated Judge's Ruling

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — A contention by attorney Arthur J. Hanes that an international Communist conspiracy is at work against James Earl Ray appears to have brought a reaction from the judge who will hear the Ray case.

Criminal Court Judge W. Preston Battle named eight attorneys Sunday to check for a possible violation of his order limiting publicity in the case of Ray, who is charged with murder in the death of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Hanes, the former Birmingham, Ala., mayor who is acting as defense counsel for Ray, met with his client Saturday, then called an airport news conference at which he also asserted Ray's rights are being violated in Shelby County Jail.

Hanes disagreed with U.S. Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark's statement that the April 4 slaying of King was carried out by one man.

"There is a giant conspiracy here and my client is being used by the conspiracy," said Hanes, who said he would disclose details of the plot when Ray's trial gets under way on Nov. 12.

He said the number of threats against his family and their 70-year-old maid are increasing.

"There are forces at work in this country tha' do not want to see this man tried," said Hanes, "and they will use any means, in my judgment, to see that neither he nor I appear in the courtroom."

Pope Paul Bans Use Of 'The Pill'

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI today banned the contraceptive pill and all other mechanical and chemical means of birth control for the world's half a billion Roman Catholics. He also indicated that the rhythm method should not be employed as a regular practice.

"Every matrimonial act must remain open to the transmission of life," the Pope declared in a key sentence of his long-delayed encyclical letter on one of the most controversial issues facing the church today.

"To destroy even only partially the significance (of intercourse) and its end is contradictory to the plan of God and to his will," the pontiff declared.

This appeared to rule out the possibility of any future acceptance by Pope Paul of contraception for any reason and seemed to imply disapproval of the constant use of the rhythm method of periodic abstinence, the only method of birth control previously sanctioned by the church.

GOP Begins Discussions On Platform

Leaders Requested Not To Aim Planks For Any Candidate

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Republicans began their 1968 platform writing today with counsel from their Senate leader against trying to shape the planke in behalf of any particular presidential hopeful.

"We don't know who is going to be the nominee," Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said. "I'm keeping myself free from that controversy—if it is a controversy."

Dirksen, who heads the committee drafting the party document in advance of next week's nomination convention, added that he himself is "trying to be neutral" in the platform-drafting and he hopes others will refrain from pushing for their favorites through platform wording.

In 1964 supporters of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and other self-styled moderates battled unsuccessfully in platform hearings to block the nomination of Barry Goldwater.

GOP Begins Discussions On Platform

Leaders Requested Not To Aim Planks For Any Candidate

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Republicans began their 1968 platform writing today with counsel from their Senate leader against trying to shape the planke in behalf of any particular presidential hopeful.

"We don't know who is going to be the nominee," Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said. "I'm keeping myself free from that controversy—if it is a controversy."

Dirksen, who heads the committee drafting the party document in advance of next week's nomination convention, added that he himself is "trying to be neutral" in the platform-drafting and he hopes others will refrain from pushing for their favorites through platform wording.

In 1964 supporters of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and other self-styled moderates battled unsuccessfully in platform hearings to block the nomination of Barry Goldwater.

The Ohio Highway patrol at Lisbon reported Mr. Stryffeler was headed west at 2:25 p.m. last Tuesday when he drove off the right side of the road into a tree.

July Does Aboutface, Offers Ideal Weather

About to be ripped off the calendar unceremoniously, the month of July apparently is trying to make up in its closing moments for the extreme heat for which it will be remembered.

The forecast calls for mostly sunny and cool tonight and Tuesday.

Gilligan Urges More Health Aid

CINCINNATI (AP) — John J. Gilligan, Democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate, said Sunday that "environmental health is an area to which we must give more attention if we intend to remain alive and healthy."

Gilligan said local and state governments "have defaulted on their proper responsibilities by shifting the blame onto other jurisdictions, ignoring or tolerating violations of existing law, and stubbornly refusing to work constructively in protecting our well-being."

The Cincinnati Democrat, in a position paper on environmental health released at his headquarters here, proposed a six-step program to help combat pollution.

He called for revision of laws and regulations in light of new knowledge; close cooperation among all levels of government; expanded research; extended tax incentives for industry to speed their pollution control efforts; strong support from the people for the changes that must be brought about; and full funding of authorized programs by congress to assist local and state governments in carrying out their pollution control responsibilities.

Gilligan lashed out at his Republican opponent, Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe, charging he has shown no interest in pollution problems.

The U.S. House of Representatives has twice been called upon to select a president. The house selected Thomas Jefferson over Aaron Burr and John Quincy Adams over Andrew Jackson.

The bicycle was owned by James Warrick of 911 Dresden Ave.

Davis, son of Ralph Davis, was treated at City Hospital for abrasions of the right forearm and elbow, right wrist and ribs.

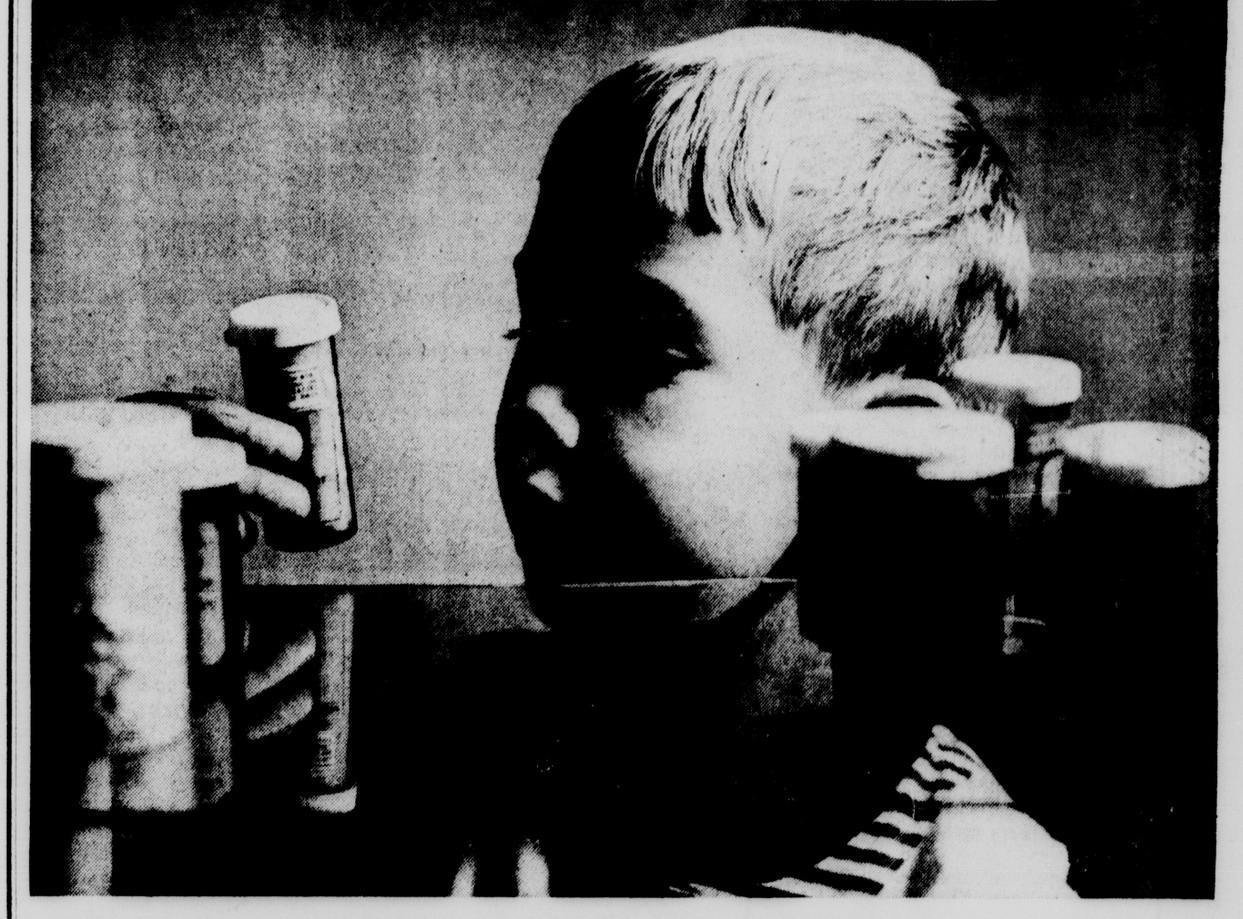
Last year four million children under 5 were treated for accidental poisoning



If you have children, ask for a "Safety Cap" container when Peoples fills your prescriptions

Many threats to children's health have been conquered by science. Now a new container for all your capsule and tablet prescriptions adds one more protection: the "Safety Cap" bottle, to safeguard medicine from eager little hands. Last year four million children under age 5 were treated for accidental poisoning. Extensive tests show few of them could have performed the two motions, palming and turning, necessary to open this new safety container.

All drugs should be locked out of children's reach, but accidents happen. If just a few children can be spared the agony of child-poisoning as a result of this new container, Peoples will be grateful. If there are children in your home, or you often have young visitors, ask for the Safety Close container when Peoples fills your prescription. Since 1905 all Peoples Drug Stores have filled more than 100 million prescriptions. A measure of the trust people have in Peoples.

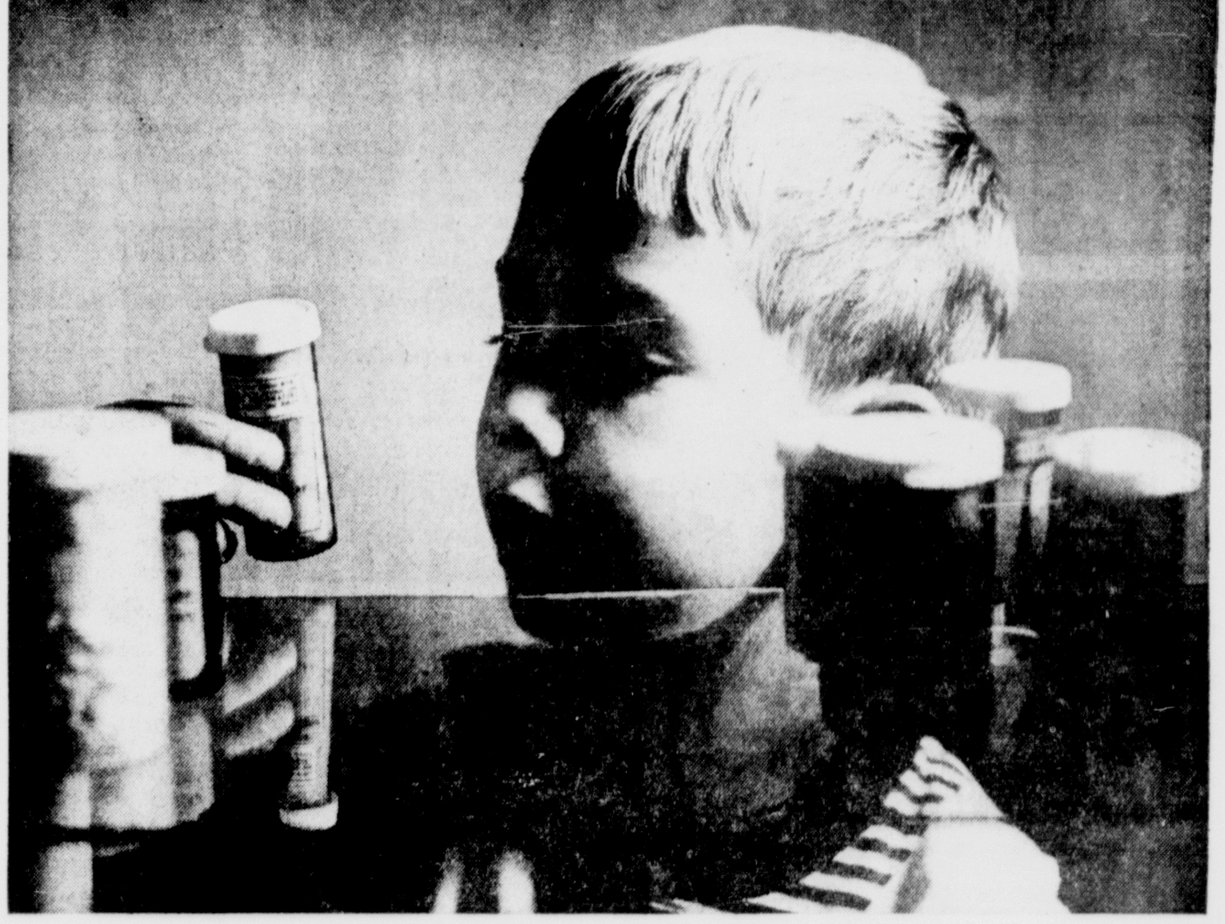
Last year four million children under 5 were treated for accidental poisoning


If you have children, ask for a "Safety Cap" container when Peoples fills your prescriptions
Many threats to children's health have been conquered by science. Now a new container for all your capsule and tablet prescriptions adds one more protection: the "Safety Cap" bottle, to safeguard medicine from eager little hands. Last year four million children under age 5 were treated for accidental poisoning. Extensive tests show few of them could have performed the two motions, palming and turning, necessary to open this new safety container.
All drugs should be locked out of children's reach, but accidents happen. If just a few children can be spared the agony of child-poisoning as a result of this new container, Peoples will be grateful. If there are children in your home, or you often have young visitors, ask for the Safety Close container when Peoples fills your prescription. Since 1905 all Peoples Drug Stores have filled more than 100 million prescriptions. A measure of the trust people have in Peoples.

Courageous Czechoslvakia

The world is watching, part of it expectantly and hopefully and part of it fearfully, to see how Russia will handle the Czechoslovakian ideological revolt.

If the Soviet Union resorts to force to compel the Czechs to stay in line as a slave nation, compelled, without choice, to be exactly as her Red masters in Moscow would have her be, then, surely, the world will have before it another undeniable example of the tyranny of world communism.

For it is the Soviet hierarchy's decree, backed up by its army and the armies of its subjugated satellites, that there must be no deviation from the orthodox Communist modus operandi.

IF, ON THE OTHER HAND, the Czechs can maneuver diplomatically in such a way that they are able to fend off the military forces of their Warsaw Pact allies and somehow retain the new freedoms which their liberal government has granted them, then slowly but surely the world may expect to see the Communist bloc in Europe come apart at the seams.

Yugoslavia set the pattern many years ago in breaking with Russia. Hungary tried and was held captive by the Russians who administered a blood bath.

Several other satellite nations have made comparatively feeble efforts to get our from beneath the heavy paw of the Russian bear but in most cases these have been of little concern to the Soviet Union.

Not so with the Czech "uprising." Russia is greatly concerned and undoubtedly fearful on her own part. Her behavior indicates this as she frantically tries to restrain the Czechs by demanding an end to the social democratization process under way in Czechoslovakia and blaming the United States for conspiring to abet the Czechs.

So far the Czechs, under the leadership of Alexander Dubeck, have practiced "brinkmanship" with superlative skill. They have not yielder nor have they goaded Russia too far.

They have waved the olive branch back and forth under the nose of the growing Russian bear with consumate success.

They have been forced to, or felt it advisable to, dismiss from his high Communist party post the general who angered the Russians by demanding revisions in the Warsaw Pact.

If the sacrifice of one man's political career and prestige can avert a military showdown, it will be a fine piece of diplomacy. It will be like pulling a thorn from the sore paw of the bear.

THE CZECHS, in their current hour of crisis, will have to make a number of calming gestures.

But their goal of greater freedoms for their people is worth many sacrifices. And the outcome of their adventure in daring will undoubtedly have a great influence in shaping the course of world events in the future.

At this moment Czechoslovakia needs courage and discretion. Our hope is that she may have both in abundance.

A Friendly Spirit

Very little in the way of interstate frictions have troubled West Virginia and Ohio relationships in recent years, and residents of Columbiana County and Hancock County have enjoyed a spirit of cooperation and friendliness at just about every level of contact.

The formal agreement to recognize the fishing and hunting license privileges of residents of both states on the Ohio River points up the degree of understanding on a shared problem.

Lest some think this is a common approach to interstate matters, consider last week's move by Ohio Attorney General William Saxbe to solve a knotty controversy between Ohio and Kentucky.

Saxbe authorized a Cincinnati firm to determine where the low water mark on the Ohio River was in 1792.

The two states have a 165-year-old dispute on where the border between them is located. Ohio residents have been arrested on the river for failure to have Kentucky fishing licenses.

The U. S. Supreme Court in 1896 ruled the border was the low water mark on the Ohio side, but it has never been determined just where the mark was then.

Perhaps Ohio will get back the $15,000 spent for the survey plus other expenses for court actions and so forth. But it seems to us the better solution would be the one reached by the Mountaineers and the Buckeye State.

It's cheaper and quicker and friendlier, keeping open a cooperative channel of joint operations which can prove important on problems far more serious.

Letter To The Editor

Czech Stand Questioned

I am writing this letter after considering an editorial which appeared in your paper several days ago. In the editorial the author expressed dismay and disapproval that the Western World, particularly the United States, had not registered support for the government of Alexander Dubcek of Czechoslovakia.

I would like to take issue with this position and offer two basic reasons why it would be a mistake of policy to take a stand favoring the Czech regime. First, what possible good could be achieved by the U.S. expressing what is its obvious wish—that Czechoslovakia be permitted to follow a course independent of Moscow? Absolutely no good could come from such a statement as far as Czechoslovakia is concerned.

The opposite effect could easily come to pass, however. First, the Soviets could use such a statement by the West as "evidence" that the revolution in Czechoslovakia was part of a capitalist plot. Or second, the Czechs could interpret such a statement as a sign of pending support and be encouraged to act imprudently, i.e., Hungary 1956.

My second objection to your editorial opinion is this—in a world of power politics, to take positions or make statements of support for a foreign regime without the willingness to reinforce language with deeds is to be "tinkling brass and sounding cymbals." And obviously we (the U.S.) are in no position to use force to back up a statement of support for Dubcek. Nor is there any national desire to do so—many don't care to fulfill our present commitment, i.e., Viet Nam.

Therefore, why make such a stand which is for all practical purposes useless. There is only one reason—so that we can soothe our collective conscience with the assurance that we really are on their (the Czech's) side.

Kremlin - Watchers

By Art Buchwald

MOSCOW — A diplomatic reception in Moscow has tremendous significance, not only because of the good food and free liquor, but because it is where most foreign observers learn what is going on in the Soviet Union.

Art Buchwald

I attended a large diplomatic cocktail party at one of the foreign embassies last week and I was amazed at what the professional Kremlin-watchers got out of it.

This is how the conversation went later on in the evening, when everyone was comparing notes:

"Did you notice Golvosky arrived after Kubinsky?"

"THAT'S VERY INTERESTING, because at the Fourth of July party at the American Embassy Kubinsky arrived after Golvosky."

"And at the Fourteenth of July party at the French Embassy they came together."

"Very significant. By the way, did anyone see Petrov shake hands with Puchinsky?"

"I was going to call that to your attention. It's strange that Petrov should shake hands with Puchinsky when the 1st time they met, Petrov only nodded at Puchinsky"

"Perhaps Puchinsky's star is rising in the Presidium."

"Or maybe Petrov's star is falling."

"I think e whave overlooked the real significance of the handshake. It is not that Petrov shook hands with Puchinsky, but Puchinsky's wife did not talk to Petrov's wife."

"Are you sure?"

"Of course I'm sure. Puchinsky's wife turned her back on Petrov's wife to say hello to Bolgonoff's wife. It was a deliberate snub."

"THAT'S VERY INTERESTING. But to me the most important thing that happened at the reception was that Bolgonoff was drunk and spilled vodka all over Marshal Igorvitch's uniform."

"What is so important about that?"

"Igorvitch was the one who apologized."

"Bolgonoff's star must be rising faster than we thought."

"No doubt about it. Marshal Igorvitch even went and got Bolgonoff another vodka."

"Did Bolgonoff spill that vodka on Igorvitch's uniform as well?"

"No, but he stepped on the marshal's foot and wouldn't get off it."

"I wonder if this means they're going to make Bolgonoff minister of defense?"

"He's obviously in for something big. I've never seen Marshal Igorvitch allow someone to stand on his foot for so long."

"Did anyone see Zubelkin at the party?"

"You mean the Tashkent poet who was ousted from the writers' union for writing a poem attacking the traffic policemen on Gorsky st.?"

"That's the one. He's been rehabilitated and is now permitted to write anything he wants, providing he doesn't ask anyone to publish it."

"The writers' union must be going through one of their liberal periods again."

"I don't know if this means anything, but Kavasky spoke to me."

"THAT IS SIGNIFICANT because Kavasky never speaks to foreigners. What did he say?"

"I asked him about the Czech problem and he replied, 'I'm sorry, I never speak to foreigners.' "

"Did anyone notice that Gogol spilled vodka on Mutiken?"

"It means nothing. Everyone is Moscow spills vodka on Mutken. He's become a regular bar rag."

VICTOR RIESEL

Israel Turns Other Cheek

GAZA, ISRAELI — This is the dusty, sun-drenched end of the road from the world-forgotten death camps of Dachau and Auschwitz vintage. And there just never will be a road back.

Victor Riesel

You can see that in the Israeli blue Star of David flag fluttering slightly in the dull, oven-heat wind over the Gaza Strip.

You can see it in the bright young soldiers carrying the Israeli brand of Sten gun. That is, you can see it if you find a Jewish soldier. This is the strangest occupying force since Stone Age man heaved his first rock.

There's no vengeance in the hearts of these khaki-uniformed Jewish kids — the second generation of kin folk who were wiped out by the Nazis.

The Arabs pretty much do as they wish. Here the native children romp around town. They gang up on the visitor with fists full of ball-point pens, perfumes, Egyptian coins, and cold drinks. The Jewish troops never molest them, though the occupying army knows that up north the Syrian guns were deliberately aimed at kibbutzim children's quarters from the Golan Heights.

Here in more than a year there has not been a single rape, a single drunken soldier, a single thieving trooper.

Never have the Arabs had it so free. One vignette will tell the story: Not too long ago the Jewish forces occupying the Jordan West Bank approved the opening of a Ysehiva (a Hebrew school) in legendary Hebron where Abraham and so many of the biblical patriarchs are buried.

SO FREE DID THE Arab mayor of Hebron feel — though he was originally appointed, as were 1,000 others, by King Hussein — that he called a press conference to denounce the Jewish action. No one interfered with him.

In fact, in all of occupied Arab territory, in which now live comfortably, by their standards, about one million Arabs, there are only 205 Jewish military administrators. An Arab can say anything except incite to murder, sabotage or terrorism.

Here in Gaza, the Jewish forces, literally and figuratively, are healing the wounds of the Arabs. All schools have been reopened and their standards raised.

Hospital services have been restored. All doctors and nurses are back. Arabs too ill to be handled in Strip clinics and facilities are rushed to modern hospitals deep in Israel itself.

Because Arabs would go hungry if the economy suffers, the Jewish army men are launching a make-work program to create jobs and train the Arabs for them.

Arabs who shot at the Jewish soldiers during the famous "Six Days" that shook the world now are earning their daily bread on roads and water supply projects. Some of these men worked for the terrorist Palestine Army of Liberation.

Others had worked for the United Nations forces once stationed there. (Tangentially, someone should take a look at the gay time the UN observers are having up in the Galilee Jordan border area.) Today this Arab employment, of course, has disappeared.

FURTHERMORE, the Arabs also had sold two million cases of citrus fruits to Egypt and Eastern Europe, and 10,000 tons of dates to Egypt alone. But the Eastern Communist lands now have cut off trade with Arabs they say they love so much. And, naturally, Cairo has ended the date trade.

With considerable ingenuity, Jewish experts have raised the fish catch from 700 tons to 800 tons a year. To salvage the native economy, Jewish marketing and agricultural experts are developing farming since permanent heavy industry and commerce are out of the question. The Jewish forces, for the moment, are here temporarily.

So the authorities of Tel Aviv and Jerusalem did some research. They learned of citrus markets and are helping the Arabs sell their fruits — to the detriment of the Israelis themselves.

A higher yield castor bean has been developed for the Arab farmers by the Weizmann Institute of Science. Jewish specialists have found a good European market for castor beans. Thus, they are planting 6,000 acres of them.

ADD TO THIS SOME research on who in Europe will buy vegetables and flour from Arabs in this desert Strip. To this add Israel's skills — of which the Arabs knew so little. And you get the meaning of inherent fraternity and an inner passion to forgive an ancient enemy.

It is all here for those who want to come and judge for themselves. It takes but a short, hot drive to the second floor headquarters of Israeli Col. Zalman Mart — "a professional soldier" — and his civilian counterpart, Nahum Guershome, soon to be Israeli ambassador to Brazzaville.

There is an effort to treat every man — Arab, Christian or Jew — with the dignity springing from the soil of an ancient biblical land. Here it takes the form of economic planning so a former enemy, and the women and children too, shall eat.

No one is denied his rights either, so he has moral as well as physical sustenance. Even terrorists are tried, not shot summarily. There is no death penalty here under the Jewish flag. There was under President Nasser's rule.

Too many men have died already. Who knows this better than the Israelis. So, rather than see blood on the sand, they turn the other cheek.

DAVID LAWRENCE

Riot Conspiracy

For many months now there has been a tendency by many groups to scoff at the charges that some of the riots across the country have been due to a conspiracy.

The national commission to study civil disorder, appointed by President Johnson and headed by Otto Kerner, former governor of Illinois, concluded that none of the 1967 disturbances was caused by or the consequence of "any organized plan or 'conspiracy.' "

But some concrete evidence of a conspiracy has been revealed in connection with the riots in Cleveland Tuesday night which resulted in the death of 10 persons. Police officials in Cleveland declare the disorder was planned and that it was part of a "black power" plot against four major cities.

CLEVELAND MAYOR Carl B. Stokes, who is a Negro, said he received information from the FBI and other intelligence sources that major disturbances would break out on Wednesday morning in his city as well as in Chicago, Detroit and Pittsburgh. He had a police task force ready Tuesday night to respond.

Adj. Gen. S. T. Del Corso, commander of the Ohio National Guard, commented that, on the basis of intelligence reports, "This is a conspiracy by black militant groups to cause disturbances not only in Ohio but all across the United States."

Fred Evans, a black nationalist leader who was arrested by Cleveland policemen, told officers that he and 17 others instigated the shooting. Patrolman David Hicks said Evans boasted he and the others began firing at the officers because, "You police have bothered us too long."

Another self-proclaimed member of a black nationalist organization is reported to have declared that the snipers came from a group of 50 or 60 Negro veterans recently returned from Vietnam who have an asenal of several hundred weapons and "decided they were going to get some white cops."

But the list of casualties shows that of the 10 dead, three were white policemen, three were Negro snipers and four others were Negroes caught in the cross fire. Twenty-nine other persons, 16 of them police officers, were wounded.

Incidentally, in May 1967 Detective Sgt. John Ungvary of Cleveland stated that, under the direction of Evans, black nationalists were plotting a "black revolution" to coincide with "a war between Red China and the United States."

There have been many reports in the last year indicating that the disturbances inside the United States might have some connection with the Communists.

Certainly, there is no doubt that some of the ammunition which was used in the latest Cleveland riot was transported in interstate commerce, with perhaps an international connection.

The problem is what will the federal government do about it. Rep. Charles A. Vanik, Ohio Democrat who lives in Cleveland, has criticized other members of Congress for having weakened a pending gun-control bill.

Pointing out that sniper fire in Cleveland came from M-1 carbines, M-16 automatics, shotguns, pistols and apparently other long guns, he said to the House of Representatives Wednesday:

"Undoubtedly some of these guns came into the city through interstate commerce and certainly the ammunition did. Yesterday the House riddled effective gun controls by weakening amendments, including one which exempts ammunition from application of the law."

The reluctance of many members of Congress to vote for strict laws to control the sale and distribution of guns and ammunition is said to be due to a "lobby" which is supported not only by businesses which are engaged in the manufacture and sale of guns, but by rifle organizations.

THE WHOLE PROBLEM of how to deal with riots has not yet been solved, and the inclination in Washington has been to pass responsibility on to the state and city governments.

But the presence of a "traffic in interstate commerce" in connection with the Cleveland riots and the existence of a plan to start disturbances in several cities puts the matter plainly within federal jurisdiction.

It would not be surprising if, during the coming political campaign, the people insisted upon an explicit statement from the presidential candidates as to what they propose concerning not only further restrictions on interstate traffic in arms but the uprooting of the conspiracies which lead to riots and disturbances.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Wellsville police and firemen rescued two young boys from a dangerous ledge on Hammond's hill.

Hancock County voters approved a $260,000 bond issue for a countywide school building program.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Five tons of sand were dropped on lower St. Clair Ave. when the dump release let go on a truck of a construction company.

Chairman of both the Republican and Democratic parties in East Liverpool issued a statement opposing the proposed change to a charter form of municipal government.

TEN YEARS AGO — Mrs. Helen Jones of American Legion Post 4 Auxiliary was elected second vice president of the County Council of American Legion Auxiliaries and Mrs. Lois Burdick of the Post 374 auxiliary was named treasurer.

The Arabs pretty much do as they wish. Here the native children romp around town. They gang up on the visitor with fists full of ballpoint pens, perfumes, Egyptian coins, and cold drinks. The Jewish troops never molest them, though the occupying army knows that up north the Syrian guns were deliberately aimed at kibbutzim children's quarters from the Golan Heights.

Here in more than a year there has not been a single rape, a single drunken soldier, a single thieving trooper.

Never have the Arabs had it so free. One vignette will tell the story: Not too long ago the Jewish forces occupying the Jordan West Bank approved the opening of a Ysehiva (a Hebrew school) in legendary Hebron where Abraham and so many of the biblical patriarchs are buried.

SO FREE DID THE Arab mayor of Hebron feel — though he was originally appointed, as were 1,000 others, by King Hussein — that he called a press conference to denounce the Jewish action. No one interfered with him.

In fact, in all of occupied Arab territory, in which now live comfortably, by their standards, about one million Arabs, there are only 205 Jewish military administrators. An Arab can say anything except incite to murder, sabotage or terrorism.

Here in Gaza, the Jewish forces, literally and figuratively, are healing the wounds of the Arabs. All schools have been reopened and their standards raised.

Hospital services have been restored. All doctors and nurses are back. Arabs too ill to be handled in Strip clinics and facilities are rushed to modern hospitals deep in Israel itself.

Because Arabs would go hungry if the economy suffers, the Jewish army men are launching a make-work program to create jobs and train the Arabs for them.

Arabs who shot at the Jewish soldiers during the famous "Six Days" that shook the world now are earning their daily bread on roads and water supply projects. Some of these men worked for the terrorist Palestine Army of Liberation.

Others had worked for the United Nations forces once stationed there. (Tangentially, someone should take a look at the gay time the UN observers are having up in the Galilee Jordan border area.) Today this Arab employment, of course, has disappeared.

FURTHERMORE, the Arabs also had sold two million cases of citrus fruits to Egypt and Eastern Europe, and 10,000 tons of dates to Egypt alone. But the Eastern Communist lands now have cut off trade with Arabs they say they love so much. And, naturally, Cairo has ended the date trade.

With considerable ingenuity, Jewish experts have raised the fish catch from 700 tons to 800 tons a year. To salvage the native economy, Jewish marketing and agricultural experts are developing farming since permanent heavy industry and commerce are out of the question. The Jewish forces, for the moment, are here temporarily.

So the authorities of Tel Aviv and Jerusalem did some research. They learned of citrus markets and are helping the Arabs sell their fruits — to the detriment of the Israelis themselves.

A higher yield castor bean has been developed for the Arab farmers by the Weizmann Institute of Science. Jewish specialists have found a good European market for castor beans. Thus, they are planting 6,000 acres of them.

ADD TO THIS SOME research on who in Europe will buy vegetables and flour from Arabs in this desert Strip. To this add Israel's skills — of which the Arabs knew so little. And you get the meaning of inherent fraternity and an inner passion to forgive an ancient enemy.

It is all here for those who want to come and judge for themselves. It takes but a short, hot drive to the second floor headquarters of Israeli Col. Zalman Mart — "a professional soldier" — and his civilian counterpart, Nahum Guershome, soon to be Israeli ambassador to Brazzaville.

There is an effort to treat every man — Arab, Christian or Jew — with the dignity springing from the soil of an ancient biblical land. Here it takes the form of economic planning so a former enemy, and the women and children too, shall eat.

No one is denied his rights either, so he has moral as well as physical sustenance. Even terrorists are tried, not shot summarily. There is no death penalty here under the Jewish flag. There was under President Nasser's rule.

Too many men have died already. Who knows this better than the Israelis. So, rather than see blood on the sand, they turn the other cheek.

Riot Conspiracy

For many months now there has been a tendency by many groups to scoff at the charges that some of the riots across the country have been due to a conspiracy.

The national commission to study civil disorder, appointed by President Johnson and headed by Otto Kerner, former governor of Illinois, concluded that none of the 1967 disturbances was caused by or the consequence of "any organized plan or 'conspiracy.' "

But some concrete evidence of a conspiracy has been revealed in connection with the riots in Cleveland Tuesday night which resulted in the death of 10 persons. Police officials in Cleveland declare the disorder was planned and that it was part of a "black power" plot against four major cities.

CLEVELAND MAYOR Carl B. Stokes, who is a Negro, said he received information from the FBI and other intelligence sources that major disturbances would break out on Wednesday morning in his city as well as in Chicago, Detroit and Pittsburgh. He had a police task force ready Tuesday night to respond.

Adj. Gen. S. T. Del Corso, commander of the Ohio National Guard, commented that, on the basis of intelligence reports, "This is a conspiracy by black militant groups to cause disturbances not only in Ohio but all across the United States."

Fred Evans, a black nationalist leader who was arrested by Cleveland policemen, told officers that he and 17 others instigated the shooting. Patrolman David Hicks said Evans boasted he and the others began firing at the officers because, "You police have bothered us too long."

Another self-proclaimed member of a black nationalist organization is reported to have declared that the snipers came from a group of 50 or 60 Negro veterans recently returned from Vietnam who have an asenal of several hundred weapons and "decided they were going to get some white cops."

But the list of casualties shows that of the 10 dead, three were white policemen, three were Negro snipers and four others were Negroes caught in the cross fire. Twenty-nine other persons, 16 of them police officers, were wounded.

Incidentally, in May 1967 Detective Sgt. John Ungvary of Cleveland stated that, under the direction of Evans, black nationalists were plotting a "black revolution" to coincide with "a war between Red China and the United States."

There have been many reports in the last year indicating that the disturbances inside the United States might have some connection with the Communists.

Certainly, there is no doubt that some of the ammunition which was used in the latest Cleveland riot was transported in interstate commerce, with perhaps an international connection.

The problem is what will the federal government do about it. Rep. Charles A. Vanik, Ohio Democrat who lives in Cleveland, has criticized other members of Congress for having weakened a pending gun-control bill.

Pointing out that sniper fire in Cleveland came from M-1 carbines, M-16 automatics, shotguns, pistols and apparently other long guns, he said to the House of Representatives Wednesday:

"Undoubtedly some of these guns came into the city through interstate commerce and certainly the ammunition did. Yesterday the House riddled effective gun controls by weakening amendments, including one which exempts ammunition from application of the law."

The reluctance of many members of Congress to vote for strict laws to control the sale and distribution of guns and ammunition is said to be due to a "lobby" which is supported not only by businesses which are engaged in the manufacture and sale of guns, but by rifle organizations.

THE WHOLE PROBLEM of how to deal with riots has not yet been solved, and the inclination in Washington has been to pass responsibility on to the state and city governments.

But the presence of a "traffic in interstate commerce" in connection with the Cleveland riots and the existence of a plan to start disturbances in several cities puts the matter plainly within federal jurisdiction.

It would not be surprising if, during the coming political campaign, the people insisted upon an explicit statement from the presidential candidates as to what they propose concerning not only further restrictions on interstate traffic in arms but the uprooting of the conspiracies which lead to riots and disturbances.

Disorder Report Says Negroes Typical Urban Youth

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders went out of business today—one year, several hundred thousand words and $1.5 million after President Johnson created it.

Sniper fire still whined in the streets of Detroit on July 29, 1967 when Johnson convened the 11-member commission at the White House and charged it with trying to learn "what happened? What can be done to prevent it from happening again and again?"

The commission, headed by former Illinois Gov. Otto Kerner and representing nearly all the colors of the political spectrum, issued its first report last March.

New Report Issued

Another report was released over the weekend and said new studies show rioters to be representative of urban Negro youth and not just "riff-raff" and criminals.

240,000 words and was the work of 150 fulltime paid staffers as well as the 11 commissioned members.

A staff aide said Sunday that approximately $1.5 million was spent on the report which concluded that America was moving toward two societies, one black and one white.

Aid Program Urged

The report called for a massive program to provide housing, education and jobs for the nation's Negroes.

The report sparked almost immediate controversy. Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon said it placed undue emphasis on the role of white racists while all but ignoring the guilt

The report also said that 10 per cent of ghetto residents take part in riots, a far larger percentage than originally estimated.

The latest report, expected to be the last bearing the commission seal, was a compilation of three studies by separate groups. It was issued without comment.

The original report ran some of rioters.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey said the report "was open to challenge."

President Johnson had told the commission when he created it:

"Sometimes various administrations have set up commissions that were expected to put the stamp of approval on what the administration already believed. This is not such a commission."

When the report came out, Johnson termed it "thorough" and "exhaustive" but declined to respond to numerous calls for a major presidential endorsement that might spur Congress to quick reaction.

Legislation was introduced in both the House and Senate embodying most of the report's recommendations. But there has been no action on any of it and none is likely in this session.

Aid Program Urged

"In my judgment, the principal reason for the absence of any action rests with the Congress of the United States," New York Mayor John Lindsay, vice chairman of the commission, has said.

The report issued the past weekend was described as a supplement to the earlier report. A staff aide said the commission has contracted for studies by various agencies and that other reports will come out in the future, but probably won't be officially labeled as a product of the riot commission.

Two of the surveys in the most recent report cover Negro and white attitudes in 15 major cities and the third sets out a profile of participants in 1967 riots.

One survey found that most Negroes are far less revolutionary than their militant spokesmen, but that they believe riot's have helped the Negro improve his conditions.

One survey said that 18 per cent of Negro residents of riot areas took part in disorders, that 1 per cent were from out of state and that 4 per cent were from outside the city. Most earlier studies have pegged the per centage of participants at 1 and 2 per cent of the ghetto population.

'Two Societies'

Taking note of the original Kerner Report's comment about two separate societies, one survey said that "the fact is, of course, that these two societies have existed separate but unequal in this country for over 300 years."

Another survey said that a disproportionate number of Negroes have police records because police watch the Negro communities more closely.

The survey adds that most of these arrests are for lesser offenses and it is therefore wrong to "brand most members of the Negro community as criminals."

The survey also said that arrest figures under represent the number of women who participated in riots by some 30 per cent.

"Policemen, for one reason or another, are permitting large numbers of female rioters to go unapprehended," it said.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's chief economic adviser says there is "a real risk" of a recession early next year as a result of the tax increase and federal spending cut.

"We do not have very much experience in curbing the inflation of an overheated economy without throwing it into reverse gear," Arthur M. Okun said in a copyright interview with "U.S. News & World Report."

"It will be an unprecedented victory if we come through with a cooling off that checks inflation without actually retreating on output, jobs and economic activity," Okun said.

"Nobody can be confident it's going to work that way," he said, "but I'm hopeful."

In approving Johnson's request for the 10 per cent income tax surcharge, Congress added requirements for a $6 billion cut in federal spending.

"We got more restraint than we asked for," Okun said, "and more than we wanted."

The chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers said the tax increase-spending cut is the biggest swing toward restraint in 20 years—a $20 billion swing in the budget—and could overslow the economy.

"However, let me emphasize that a slowdown is desirable," he said. "We need a shift from hot boom to cold prosperity."

Tight Contest Faces Voters In Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Jim Johnson and his wife Virginia are, in effect, asking Arkansas voters to disrupt their home. Jim wants to go to the U.S. Senate, his wife to the governor's mansion.

Johnson, 43 and a self-styled segregationist, is considered Sen. J. William Fulbright's strongest challenger in a four-man race for the Democratic senatorial nomination in Tuesday's primary election.

Mrs. Johnson is one of six Democrats seeking the gubernatorial nomination, and some polls give her a good chance of making the anticipated primary runoff. A candidate will need more than 50 per cent of the vote to avoid a runoff.

The 40-year-old Mrs. Johnson, an attractive and poised mother of three sons, is the first woman ever to run in Arkansas for governor, a position her husband has twice sought unsuccesfsully.

She is a veteran of her husband's past campaigns, but this is her first try for office on her own.

The Johnsons' candidacies are intertwined with that of former Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace, the third party presidential hopeful. They led the drive to qualify Wallace as a presidential candidate in Arkansas and now they hand out Wallace campaign material along with their own and have kind words for him in their speeches.

Critics claim that Johnson would act as governor if she were elected, much as they say Wallace acted through his late wife when she was governor of Alabama.

Arkansas Republicans are expected to easily renominate Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller over S.C. Roberts of Little Rock, an unemployed salesman, in the GOP primary.

land—the site of old Swaney airport north of Glenmoor.

Charles J. Gause, president of the board of commissioners, and Vincent Laneve, CAA chairman, met with Bettis in his office today. They had signed the agreement Thursday subject to his signature on return from vacation. He is attorney for the co-sponsors.

After a conference with Laneve on the four parcels making up the airport site, Bettis said, "We are satisfied now that all the titles are clear except for one."

He said he called the lienholder this morning "and he agreed to send me a letter today clearing the lien so that it won't interfere with operation of the airport."

Bettis said he will have another meeting with the co-sponsors Wednesday morning. "I hope I will be able at that time to give the federal people a clear title to the properties."

A condition of the agreement is that the FAA will not pay any costs of construction until the sponsors furnish evidence the land is free and clear.

Bettis said there are two old lines (1918) for oil and gas, but these apparently have run out although still on record. The prosecutor said Laneve assured him he has gone over the properties and there has been no drilling on them for many years.

"This is it," Laneve said happily as he left the Courthouse.

The Pope's conservative conclusion is expected to touch off a new explosion of worldwide controversy among Catholics and non-Catholics.

Surveys and reports from priests show that millions of Catholic couples already use the pill and other birth control devices. Many prominent theologians have insisted that despite any stand the Pope takes, birth control remains a matter of personal choice for each couple.

ings is being moved in from the vacated schools and new equipment is arriving daily. The laying of the new floors in the hallways, is causing a slight delay, Blair said, but pointed out all equipment will be in place on time. The hall floors are a new plastic type which are laid in liquid form and require a 72-hour drying period. When dry, they resemble terrazo flooring. As soon as these are completed, the new equipment will be set in place.

Construction of the Maine Blvd. sewer is not under way yet. However, bids will be opened Aug. 1 and construction is due to be completed in time for the scheduled opening of the school year, Blair added.

Vacancies still exist in the teaching staff, he said. Needed are a vocal music supervisor, an instrumental instructor, a high school general math and geometry teacher and an algebra teacher for the Westgate building.

Cafeterias in the buildings also will be new to most of the students. Only Westgate has had cafeteria service in the past. Students at East Junior will be served at the East Elementary building.

David L. Moore of Hammondsville RD 1, traveling on Wells Ave., where the highway divides, at 3 a.m. Sunday, went off the highway, striking a utility pole. Moore told police he was blinded by the lights of an oncoming car. He was cited for reckless operation and is scheduled to appear in mayor's court Saturday.

Robert L. Myers of East Liverpool RD 3 was driving a 1961 sedan at 14th and Commerce Sts. Sunday morning at 1:30 a.m. when he lost control and his auto hit a telephone pole. He also told police the lights of an oncoming car blinded him. He was cited for failure to keep his vehicle under control.

In an accident Saturday at 7:05 p.m., a 1963 sedan operated by Clyde L. Malterer of 738 Riley Ave., East Liverpool, headed west, was stopped for the light at Routes 45 and 7 and was struck in the rear by a 1965 sedan operated by James Nemeth of Munhall, Pa.

Malterer's auto was shoved into a pickup truck. The truck was not damaged.

Nemeth was charged with failure to have his vehicle under control. He is scheduled to appear Friday at 10 a.m. He posted bond of $9.

The Pope's conservative conclusion is expected to touch off a new explosion of worldwide controversy among Catholics and non-Catholics.

Surveys and reports from priests show that millions of Catholic couples already use the pill and other birth control devices. Many prominent theologians have insisted that despite any stand the Pope takes, birth control remains a matter of personal choice for each couple.

ings is being moved in from the vacated schools and new equipment is arriving daily. The laying of the new floors in the hallways, is causing a slight delay, Blair said, but pointed out all equipment will be in place on time. The hall floors are a new plastic type which are laid in liquid form and require a 72-hour drying period. When dry, they resemble terrazo flooring. As soon as these are completed, the new equipment will be set in place.

Construction of the Maine Blvd. sewer is not under way yet. However, bids will be opened Aug. 1 and construction is due to be completed in time for the scheduled opening of the school year, Blair added.

Vacancies still exist in the teaching staff, he said. Needed are a vocal music supervisor, an instrumental instructor, a high school general math and geometry teacher and an algebra teacher for the Westgate building.

Cafeterias in the buildings also will be new to most of the students. Only Westgate has had cafeteria service in the past. Students at East Junior will be served at the East Elementary building.

Cleveland Officer Says City Knew Sniper Sites

CLEVELAND (AP)—A member of the police department's special task force unit says unnamed higherups had information on which the snipers who shot down three unarmed policemen last Tuesday might have been arrested "before a shot was fired."

Seven Negro civilians also were killed in the violence that followed.

Patrolmen Thomas R. Gerrity said in an interview Sunday he was one of five task force policemen who were told at 5 p.m. Tuesday to watch a house on Auburndale Avenue and a station wagon parked in front of the house.

This is two blocks south of the intersection where the shootings broke out.

Gerrity said in the Plain Dealer interview that he and his partner, Thomas Horgan, saw five men, some with carbines, get into the car shortly after 8 p.m.

When he notified the radio dispatcher, Gerrity said, he was ordered to get out of the area as quickly as possible. A car that was parked on Auburndale followed him, he said, and two shots were fired into the police car about 8:20 p.m.

Moments later, tow truck opperator William McMillan, the first policeman to be shot in the gun battle on Lakeview at Beulah Avenue, radioed for help, Gerrity said.

When he headed back into the area, the task force officer said, his car was sprayed with bullets from semi-automatic weapons.

"I'll probably end up in radio after telling this," said Gerrity, "but it has to be told. The powers that be knew something was happening" when the task force was ordered to watch the house at 5 p.m. Tuesday.

"They should have warned police."

The patrolman said possession of automatic weapons "is a federal crime. The police or FBI could have arrested those snipers before a shot was fired.

"And this could all happen again right here," he added. "Even though there was word of only a handful of snipers, I saw at least 30. They have to be around somewhere."

Meanwhile, the last of the Ohio National Guardsmen who were ordered into Cleveland in the wake of the shootings pulled out Sunday, and police resumed regular duty hours.

Some 1,200 troops left Saturday and the remaining 1,500 departed Sunday.

Snipers Fire In Cincinnati Street Fray

CINCINNATI (AP) — Snipers fired shots at police as they moved into the Millvale section early Sunday to quiet a disturbance and three policemen were assaulted.

"At least half a dozen shots from a light weapon were fired" at about 18 policemen as they attempted to disperse an estimated crowd of 500 persons, Capt. Stanley Grothaus said. No one was hit.

Armed with shotguns, the policemen fired warning blasts into the air to break up the crowd which hurled rocks and bottles at them. Two young Negroes were hurt—not seriously—and two juveniles and four adults were arrested in the incident about 2:30 a.m. in the predominantly Negro area.

Sgt. Paul Guthrie of a special tactical police unit said one of the shots knocked out a street light directly over them.

Sgt. William Breckel, one of the first policemen on the scene, was mauled by at least four members of the crowd, but was not hurt.

Patrolman Robert McCullom, 30, of the tactical unit, suffered left ear lacerations when struck by a bottle—one of many objects thrown during the disturbance, Guthrie said.

"There was glass all over the street, sidewalks and grass," Guthrie continued.

A youth, who had been carrying a hay bailing hook, attacked patrolman Robert Kelly, 34, also of the tactical unit, inflicting multiple scratches on Kelly's legs.

Police said the disturbance was triggered by an auto accident as the driver of a car that hit a parked auto got into a fight with one spectator of a crowd that began to gather. Police had been called out earlier as disorderly crowds were reported in the section.

Besides the two juveniles who were turned over to juvenile authorities, adults taken into custody and charges against them are:

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — One of my aluminum skillets has become warped on the bottom and does not sit level on the stove. How can I remedy this?

A. — Heat the pan until a drop of cold water dances in it, then take it to the workshop, turn it upside down, place a board on it, and hit the board quite hard three or four times with a hammer. This will usually flatten it again.

Q. — How can I grow parsley in my kitchen?

A. — Cut a small porous sponge in half, place these halves in pretty dishes, and sprinkle a few parsley seeds over the sponges. Keep them moist. The growing parsley will provide a green plant for the kitchen and nice garnish for your table.

Q. — How can I remove mildew stains from white cottons and linens?

A. — A bath in hot, sudsy water may remove these stains, if they are fresh. If not, apply lemon juice and salt, and place the article in direct sunlight. Use only warm, sudsy water on colored articles.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Criss-Cross Curtain Tip

DEAR HELOISE: This cute idea was given to me by a young newlywed.

When hanging crisscross curtains, pull up the top ruffle of the curtain next to the window so that it stands up at the TOP of the window and looks just like a top double-ruffle!

Heloise

It adds so much to the window.

MRS. J. BUKEMOSE.

Now that's what I call real hunky-dory, and you're an absolute angel pie for passing it on.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I put a coat or two of asphalt roofing paint on the inside bottom and lower sides of my garbage and trash cans and let it dry THOROUGHLY to prevent rusting.

FRANK GULETTE.

DEAR HELOISE: I haunt rummage sales and many times pick up a dress (for a dollar or so) with lots of lovely buttons — sometimes expensive ones for much less than I would pay in the store. Not to mention the zipper and the material.

If it has a full, gathered skirt, I can usually make two pillow cases, or perhaps a table cloth for my breakfast table, or a nice apron or two. Sure saves on my budget!

If the dress is embroidered organdy, or something sheer and nice with a full skirt, I can make lovely kitchen or bathroom curtains.

FLORA YOUNG.

LETTER OF LOVE

DEAR HELOISE: No matter how tough things get or how tired I am, when I see my older son bend down and hug and kiss the little one, and Daddy comes home and hugs and kisses us all, everything is worthwhile after all.

MRS. F. L. APPERSON.

DEAR HELOISE: In regard to the letter written by a doctor about wearing golf shoes when mowing the lawn., I have found another advantage to this practice.

The cleats in the shoes put small holes in the sod that help aerate the lawn. I'm sure those who wear golf shoes now have greener lawns than before.

D. J. WOOLLEY.

DEAR HELOISE: Recently I baked a ham and wanted to glaze it with something.

So I mixed a half-cup of apple jelly with a cup and a half of dark corn syrup. Then poured it over the ham the last 30 minutes of baking, basting it several times until well-glazed.

I used apple jelly because that's what I had on hand, but most any kind would work as well.

My family said it was the best ham I had ever baked.

MRS. M. C. D.

Ummmm boyeeee! Last night I tried honey mixed with brown sugar. 'Twas good, too.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Everyone knows how good the bed feels when you put on clean bed linens. . .but it would be hard to keep up with all that laundry if you changed them every day.

My husband was a bed patient for many months and I liked to make it as comfortable for him as possible.

I changed the linens every other day. And on the days when I didn't change them, I took them off and hung them on the line to air while I straightened his room. Then brought the linens back in off the line and remade the bed.

Made the bed feel real clean and fresh.

MRS. B. CHALKLEY.

DEAR HELOISE: When the weather gets really hot, be sure to open the windows from the TOP as well as the bottom to let that hot air out.

W. V. M.

NAACP Sets Defense Aid For OSU Students

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The general counsel of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Robert L. Carter, said Sunday he will enter the cases of Ohio State University Negro students indicted for the April 26 takeover of the university administration building.

Carter promised, at a legal redress committee meeting of the Ohio NAACP, that he will enter the federal court case to answer an action filed by the U. S. Attorney's office and Franklin County Prosecutor C. Howard Johnson.

Cardinal Claimed

MADRID, Spain (AP) — Angel Cardinal Herrera y Oria, retired bishp of Malaga and a fighter for social causes, died Sunday on the 28th anniversary of his ordination as a priest. The cardinal was a successful lawyer and publisher in Spain before entering the priesthood. He was made bishop of Malaga in 1947 and named a cardinal in 1966.

The two principles embodied in the Monroe Doctrine are noninterference with the independent countries of the Americas and no further colonization of the New World by the Old.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Criss-Cross Curtain Tip

DEAR HELOISE: This cute idea was given to me by a young newlywed.

When hanging crisscross curtains, pull up the top ruffle of the curtain next to the window so that it stands up at the TOP of the window and looks just like a top double-ruffle!

Heloise

It adds so much to the window.

MRS. J. BUKEMOSE.

-:-

Now that's what I call real hunky-dory, and you're an absolute angel pie for passing it on.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I put a coat or two of asphalt roofing paint on the inside bottom and lower sides of my garbage and trash cans and let it dry THOROUGHLY to prevent rusting.

FRANK GULETTE.

DEAR HELOISE: I haunt rummage sales and many times pick up a dress (for a dollar or so) with lots of lovely buttons — sometimes expensive ones for much less than I would pay in the store. Not to mention the zipper and the material.

If it has a full, gathered skirt, I can usually make two pillow cases, or perhaps a table cloth for my breakfast table, or a nice apron or two. Sure saves on my budget!

If the dress is embroidered organdy, or something sheer and nice with a full skirt, I can make lovely kitchen or bathroom curtains.

FLORA YOUNG.

LETTER OF LOVE

DEAR HELOISE: No matter how tough things get or how tired I am, when I see my older son bend down and hug and kiss the little one, and Daddy comes home and hugs and kisses us all, everything is worthwhile after all.

MRS. F. L. APPERSON.

DEAR HELOISE: In regard to the letter written by a doctor about wearing golf shoes when mowing the lawn., I have found another advantage to this practice.

The cleats in the shoes put small holes in the sod that help aerate the lawn. I'm sure those who wear golf shoes now have greener lawns than before.

D. J. WOOLLEY.

DEAR HELOISE: Recently I baked a ham and wanted to glaze it with something.

So I mixed a half-cup of apple jelly with a cup and a half of dark corn syrup. Then poured it over the ham the last 30 minutes of baking, basting it several times until well-glazed.

I used apple jelly because that's what I had on hand, but most any kind would work as well.

My family said it was the best ham I had ever baked.

MRS. M. C. D.

-:-

Ummmm boyeeee! Last night I tried honey mixed with brown sugar. 'Twas good, too.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Everyone knows how good the bed feels when you put on clean bed linens. . .but it would be hard to keep up with all that laundry if you changed them every day.

My husband was a bed patient for many months and I liked to make it as comfortable for him as possible.

I changed the linens every other day. And on the days when I didn't change them, I took them off and hung them on the line to air while I straightened his room. Then brought the linens back in off the line and remade the bed.

Made the bed feel real clean and fresh.

MRS. B. CHALKLEY.

DEAR HELOISE: When the weather gets really hot, be sure to open the windows from the TOP as well as the bottom to let that hot air out.

W. V. M.

Personalities In The News

SAINT TROPEZ, France (AP) — The Woom Woom night club was the scene of some scuffling Saturday night when a male friend of actress Brigitte Bardot objected to what he deemed uncomplimentary remarks about her.

The friend, Italian shipowner Luigi Rizzi, had words with several persons at the bar. Words led to blows. Rizzi was outnumbered, but actor Alain Delon and pop singer Johnny Halliday stepped in to help him out. Finally the fighting subsided.

Miss Bardot had arrived earlier in her white Rolls Royce.

NEW YORK (AP) — Andy Warhol, pop artist and underground film maker, was released from Columbus Hospital Sunday, almost two months after he was shot in his office.

Warhol was wounded June 3 allegedly by Valeria Solanis, 28-year-old actress, who is still in Elmhurst, Queens, Hospital undergoing psychiatric observation.

A London art dealer, Mario Amaya, also was wounded.

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) — Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy celebrated her 39th birthday Sunday at the Kennedy family compound on Nantucket Sound.

With the former First Lady was her son, John Jr., who is spending the summer sailing and taking swimming lessons.

Caroline, the oldest child of Mrs. Kennedy and the late president, is in Europe with her aunt, Princess Lee Radziwill.

Venusian Clouds May Hide Large Mountains

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Astronomers say three rugged areas on the cloud-shrouded planet Venus could be mountains.

The rough areas extend over thousands of square miles on the northwest portion of the side of Venus always facing earth, says Dr. Richard M. Goldstein of the Jet Propulsion Laboratory.

Goldstein and Dr. Shlahav Zohar announced their conclusion Saturday, saying they used a 210-foot satellite tracing antenna at Goldstone, Calif., to bounce radar waves off Venus.

These waves were used to measure "shadows" in the reflected beam which indicated a rough surface, the astronomers said.

Ohio Lists 10 Road Deaths

By The Associated Press

Ohio has recorded its lowest weekend traffic death toll of the summer.

The count from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Sunday totaled 10, with four of the victims dying in motorcycle accidents.

The relatively low total compared with 19 the previous weekend and 21 two weeks ago. All the deaths over the past weekend came in single-fatality accidents.

The victims included:

Saturday

Dennis Craycroft, 19, Columbus, was killed when his car crashed off U. S. 40 in Muskingum County nine miles west of Zanesville.

Mrs. Lucille Kreager, 54, Toledo, died in a two-car accident in Wood County.

Donald E. Edens, 25, Cleveland, was killed when his motorcycle went out of control and crashed into a house in Cleveland.

Kirt Crites, 23, Ravenna, was killed when his motorcycle crashed in Ravenna.

Roger Reed, 22, Lake Milton, died when his motorcycle collided with a car near Youngstown.

Sunday

Walkouts Close Soup Firm Plants

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP)—Some 3,000 hourly wage workers struck the Campbell Soup Co.'s big Camden plant at midnight Sunday in a dispute centered mainly around a contract expiration date.

The Campbell plant at Napoleon, Ohio, was also struck Sunday night and a walkout was scheduled at a Chestertown, Md. plant. Hourly workers struck earlier at plants at Sacramento, Calif., and Parris, Tex. In all, some 7,500 hourly workers are involved, a company spokesman said.

Campbell operates a total of 20 plants around the nation.

The company unilaterally increased hourly pay at its Camden plant by 13 cents, to a total of $2.30, but there have been no company-union negotiations on a total economic package under a proposed, new long-term contract, according to Campbell.

The basic issue, the company said, is a union demand for a common contract expiration date at all five plants involved in the current dispute.

End To War Called Goal By McCarthy

By The Associated Press

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy says his goal as president next to ending the Vietnam war would be to divert most of its $30 billion annual budget to city problems, which he calls the nation's second most critical concern.

But Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's camp claimed Sunday delegate-selection results indicate Humphrey will have "far more than enough" votes to win the Democratic presidential nomination over McCarthy on the first national convention ballot.

McCarthy, in a policy statement issued Sunday, said he would not wait for an end to the Vietnam war but as president would begin diverting money to domestic problems as the war was de-escalated.

He pledged a "massive job creation program" involving tax incentives to private enterprise—and said this would permit a start toward "elimination of the present degrading welfare system which encourages dependency on the federal government."

He also pledged large-scale housing and health programs, some form of minimum wage guarantees, and federal funding of programs master planned by each city.

The Humphrey camp, privately claiming as many as 1,600 delegates, said results of delegate-selecting conventions—including those in Kentucky, Virginia and Utah over the weekend—indicate first-ballot nomination is assured.

The Democratic nomination requires 1,312 votes. Humphrey's headquarters claimed 110 new delegates had been won at the three weekend conventions.

Newsmen's surveys of favoring—not committed—delegates indicate Humphrey won 41 in Kentucky to 5 for McCarthy; 15 to 18 in Virginia where McCarthy people claimed 8, and 20 in Utah with the other 6 undecided.

The balance of Virginia's 54-member delegation professes to be uncommitted but most members were understood to lean more to Humphrey than McCarthy.

James Chikas of W. Lincoln Way reported to police at 11:30 p.m. Sunday that an unidentified car smashed the front end of his parked compact car.

Residents of N. Market and Jerome Sts. heard a crash at 1 a. m. Sunday and found that someone had broken a large Frantz Service station. A pop bottle was found nearby.

Food Not The Only Solution

Hunger Study Criticized

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hunger in the United States is mainly a health problem that cannot be solved by simply putting more food in undernourished or empty bellies, says a new report.

The report, circulating among influential medical people, public officials and researchers, is highly critical of a study by the Citizens Board of Inquiry earlier this year.

The citizens board's findings that thousands of people are starving in the United States were based on actual error, lack of knowledge and too much emotion, says the new report.

The report is entitled "Hunger USA—A Critical Review."

The author is Dr. Herbert Pollack, a staff member of the Institute fo Defense Analyses, a private corporation which handles a variety of research projects for the Pentagon.

Published As 'Courtesy'

The IDA said the Pollack report was his own and is not endorsed by the organization. It was published by IDA, a spokesman said, "as a courtesy" to Pollack, who was described as "a widely recognized authority in the medical profession."

The published findings of the Citizens Board of Inquiry have weighed heavily in efforts for expanded food programs.

"It is unfortunate that a report of this importance should contain so many factual errors and manifest lack of basic knowledge of nutrition," Pollack said.

"It must be considered more of a political polemic than a scientific treatise. It seems to stir up action based on an emotional appeal," he added. "As a scientific document it fails to supply the necessary infomartion to direct the energies of the responsible people into the proper channels of corrective measures."

An example, Pollack said, is a hunger report statement that nutritional anemia stemming pimrarily from protein and iron deficiencies was commonly found in 30 to 70 per cent of the children from poverty backgrounds.

Other Cause Cited

"The report does not, at this point, mention that over 50 per cent of these children were found to have intestinal parasites which may well be the cause of the anemias," he said.

"Another well-known cause of childhood anemia is over use of milk. The bulk of the evidence is that this is an iron deficiency anemia and not a protein deficiency. It was correctible by the addition of iron to the diet," he added.

Accounts of poor people existing on diets of blackeye peas, grits, flour, fatback, potatoes and beans also were cited by Pollack.

"Blackeye peas are excellent sources of protein as are beans," he said. "The potatoes are good sources of Vitamin C and calories, and the fatback is a good source of calories and protects the greens during the cooking process.

"The monotony of eating is frequently by choice," he said. "People do not like to eat strange foods."

Anemia, Pollack said, is a symptom of "a variety of causes," including chronic bleeding, intestinal parasites, iron deficiency, protein deficiency, inherent bone-marrow diseases and many others.

Starch Foods Listed

Pollack said the hunger report asked whether poor people getting food through welfare programs receive enough protein in "starch foods" such as potatoes, grits, rice, cornpone, bread and beans.

The implication was, Pollack said, that children suffer physical damage from such diets.

"While beans and rice may be considered starchy foods," he said, "they are also excellent sources of protein and serve as the background for much of the world's protein."

Pollack said the health problems of Negroes "are inseparably connected with his poor housing, unemployment and inadequate education" and that "the health problem of the Negro are also the health problems of the poor."

Improved sanitation and education campaigns should be the "first order of attack" in solving the problems of the poorly nourished, Pollack said.

The DOCTOR Says

By Dr. W. G. Brandstadt

A Hot Drink Is A Summertime Cooler

A tall, cold drink to refresh you on a hot day will have just the opposite effect, according to Dr. L. C. Senay Jr. This is because the rate of sweating—nature's own device for cooling your skin — is temporarily reduced until the temperature of your cold drink has been raised to 98.6 degrees or higher.

Dr. Brandstadt

IN ONE experiment, three volunteers underwent a period of dehydration, then drank a solution of the salinity of the body fluids at body temperature and later at a temperature of 45 to 50 degrees. In each case, drinking the warm drink was accompanied by a secretion of sweat that was more than ample to keep the body temperature from rising but drinking the cold drink caused it to rise.

—:—

MY ADVICE—DRINK your iced tea if you prefer, but don't expect it to cool you off as well as a cup of hot tea.

Q—What is indocin used for?

A—Indomethacin (Indocin) is given to relieve the pain and inflammatory reaction in persons with various types of arthritis. It does not belong to the cortisone group of drugs.

Q—Can Indocin be taken indefinitely for arthritis? Does it have any bad side effects, especially regarding glaucoma? Is it a cure or is it given to control the arthritic symptoms?

A—This powerful drug may be taken for prolonged periods but only under careful medical supervision. Its side effects, when too large a dose is given, include headache, dizziness, nausea, diarrhea, mental confusion and asthmatic attacks. There are no reports that it will aggravate glaucoma. Although it is not a cure, it does give welcome symptomatic relief.

Q—What are histamine shots given for? How long should one take them?

A—A small amount of histamine is sometimes injected into the skin to test the adequacy of the arterial circulation. A histamine injection may also be given to test the ability of the stomach to produce acid. I suspect, however, that the shots you are referrig to are the antihistamine shots used to treat hay fever and other allergies. The number of injections and duration of the treatment must be determined by your doctor.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Ohio City Threatened By Truck Blaze Blast

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — A burning semitrailer truck, loaded with napalm bombs and artillery shells, loomed as a powder keg for more than an hour Saturday, threatening suburban Sharonville.

Part of the heavily populated area was evacuated and Sharonville firemen braved the threat of a massive explosion to extinguish the blaze with gallons of foam. No one was hurt.

The fire apparently erupted in the right front wheels of the trailer, carrying a total of 40,000 pounds of U.S. Air Force explosives, but the interior of the trailer did not catch fire.

ANN LANDERS

Professional Help Needed

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a high school boy (senior) who needs your advice. I'm depressed most of the time and don't want to talk to anybody. When I'm in the dumps I feel worthless and stupid and I hate myself. Then I go the other way and think I'm the greatest.

I know I need to socialize more but when I get the chance I make some dumb excuse and back out because I'm afraid I won't act right and people will dislike me even more.

I feel alone when I'm with my family. My father has always been cold. My mother is so busy trying to keep peace in the family she has no time for anything else. Dad fights with everybody.

I've told Mom I think I need psychiatric help but she says I'm going through a stage and I'll grow out of it. I've even thought of suicide. Please tell me what to do. — AFRAID OF LIFE.

Dear Afraid: My advice is for both you and your parents because you need to recognize the nature of your problem and your parents need to recognize the importance of getting you to a doctor for a psychiatric evaluation.

Unfortunately some parents are reluctant to recognize symptoms in their children that could be signs of emotional illness. The parents fear it will label them as failures. In any event, fixing the "blame" serves no useful purpose. What is needed now is professional help. Your personality swings (from high to low and low to high) need exploration.

Gold Digger

Dear Ann: We are five teenage girls who are writing to servicemen in Vietnam.

One girl (I will call her Jill) has been getting gifts from the boy she's writing to — not little trinkets, Ann, the last gift was a wristwatch that must have set him back a lot of money. Jill is practically engaged to a 19-year-old boy she's been dating for two years. When we criticized her, she said, "I'm making the GI happy and I'm entitled to whatever he wants to give me."

Maybe I feel so strongly because I have a brother in Vietnam and I'd hate to have a girl double deal him like this. What's your opinion? — OUTSPOKEN IN CHIPPEWA FALLS.

-:-

Dear Outspoken: It's unlikely that the GI would be sending Jill expensive gifts if he knew she was "practically engaged." It was neither proper (nor honest) to accept presents under the circumstances and I hope Jill will return the watch and urge the GI to save his money.

Flattery Victim

Dear Ann: Four years ago I did a foolish thing. I let a man move into my apartment without benefit of clergy. He had lost his job and was broke. I felt sorry for him. I was also flattered by his attention because he was nine years younger than I and very good looking. We lived together for almost two years.

When he got a good job, he also got a new sweetheart — someone his own age — and married her. My question is this: Am I legally free of this rat? A woman at work said something about common law marriages. (I'm listed on his company insurance policy as his wife.)

I'm too shy to talk to a lawyer and I need your HELP. — SOUTHERN NITWIT.

HHH Vows Viet Peace When Elected

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey said today his first task if elected president "will be to restore peace in Vietnam."

He told a Town Hall luncheon in a prepared speech America must seek to strengthen the alternative to conflict "and in Vietnam that alternative is clear."

South Vietnam's affairs, he said, "should be run by the people who live there, not by Washington or Hanoi."

Humphrey said this course means free elections "in which all can vote and all can run for office, with guarantees against force and intimidation."

And he added, "it means being willing to accept the results of these elections."

Humphrey arrived here Saturday on a four-day campaign visit. He moves to San Francisco Tuesday.

While he met privately Sunday afternoon with the state's 174-vote Democratic delegation pledged to the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, an antiwar rally was staged outside the hotel.

Many of the protestors, estimated by police at 3,000, carried signs boosting the candidacy of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn.

Humphrey's campaign Sunday night moved to the storybook castle of Camelot at the Warner Bros.-Seven Arts studio lot at the foot of the Hollywood hills in nearby Burbank.

The political rally was organized by Nancy Sinatra and Young Citizens for Humphrey.

Humphrey was forced to quit speaking at a Watts political rally Saturday in the predominantly Negro section of Los Angeles.

A group of young militants, booing and shouting "Honkie go Home," drowned out his voice. He left within minutes.

Escapees Sought In Xenia Vicinity

XENIA, Ohio (AP) — Authorities searched in Greene and Montgomery counties early today for two men who escaped Sunday from the Xenia City Jail.

One Xenia police officer said the two men attempted to force a car off a road about four miles northwest of Xenia.

The pair were on foot and wielded sawed-off jail bars.

Police said Steve Gerlaugh, 18, and Frank Newsome, 20, both of Dayton, sawed their way through jail bars and then threw a sheet over a jail guard.

Patrolman Robert Shattuck chased the men through Xenia streets but was unable to shoot because of numerous pedestrians.

Police said the pair were arrested here June 12 on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. They were also wanted on federal warrants, including one for transporting 55 stolen guns across state lines.

Call 'Healthy Conflict'

Power Struggles Mark 'Model Cities' Programs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Early planning in the Model Cities program has been marked by widespread disputes—and some outright power struggles—between city officials and residents of neighborhoods involved, the program director acknowledges.

But H. Ralph Taylor, assistant secretary of the Department of Housing and Urban Development, says in most cases it's been a healthy conflict.

"There are tensions," Taylor said in an interview. "But remember, you're starting from a background of suspicion on both sides. This has been a very healthy thing."

Taylor said that although some of the disputes have turned into outright struggles for control of the programs, only in two of the 75 cities selected so far—Newark, N.J., and Oakland, Calif.—have city hall and the neighborhood failed to reach an acceptable agreement on how to divide authority.

The government withholds planning funds until it is satisfied with the arrangement.

The Model Cities program, begun nine months ago with selection of 63 cities, is attempting to make a single poor neighborhood in each city an attractive place to live.

While local governments have ultimate responsibility for the program, residents of the chosen neighborhoods must be given "maximum" participation.

Taylor said struggles for control have occurred in some cities where either the mayors or the neighborhoods wanted to run the whole show.

Asked whether the Black Power movement has contributed to such struggles, he said "yes, it has."

Officials in some cities have given complete authority to the neighborhoods, Taylor said. But he said that approach isn't likely to succeed.

"It takes political leadership of a high order to make this kind of a program work," he said, "A neighborhood just can't do it on its own hook."

City Hall alone, he said has the power to bring into the project the cooperation of such elements as schools, the welfare agency, the housing authority and the police department.

Many federal programs to date have lacked such unity, Taylor said, so "they become a series of projcts, with everyone looking for dough."

Joke Backfires, Puts Man, 33, In Hospital

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A practical joke backfired Sunday and sent two men to University Hospital here.

Residents of an apartment near the Ohio State University campus said a former student, now on leave from the Army, threw a smoke grenade into the bathtub of the apartment.

The resident manager of the apartment, Edward Aleo, 23, was overcome by smoke and was in fair condition later in University Hospital.

Patrolman Paul Clark also suffered smoke inhalation, but was released from the hospital.

Joke Backfires, Puts Man, 33, In Hospital

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A practical joke backfired Sunday and sent two men to University Hospital here.

Residents of an apartment near the Ohio State University campus said a former student, now on leave from the Army, threw a smoke grenade into the bathtub of the apartment.

The resident manager of the apartment, Edward Aleo, 23, was overcome by smoke and was in fair condition later in University Hospital.

Post 374 Nips Weirton, Ties For Division Lead

Post 374 traveled to Weirton yesterday and downed Weirton Post 10 4-2 to force a tie for the northern division title in the OVAC American Legion Baseball League.

Both teams finished the regular season with 8-2 records. Both of Weirton's losses were at the hands of Post 374, while the locals lost to Steubenville and Cadiz. The two teams will play off on a date yet to be determined and the winner will meet Bridgeport, the southern division champ, for the league title.

Jerry Howell was the winning pitcher in a duel with Ben Urso. Each hurler allowed just for hits, but Howell was wild, walking six and hitting one. He loaded the bases on two walks and a hit batsman in the seventh, but fanned Tom Clark for the final out.

Mikula homered for Weirton in the first and Post 10 got its other run without a hit in the fifth. East Liverpool took a 3-0 lead in the first. Bob Bartram doubled and Dan Cunningham and Rex Campbell were safe on errors, with two runs scoring. Campbell scored when Jim Duffy grounded out.

In the third East Liverpool got another unearned run when Jim Musuraca was safe on an error, stole second and scored on a hit by Bill Montgomery.

Sometimes you can find out more about what's going on in your home area by going away.

A story in the Philadelphia Bulletin yesterday had quite a bit of interest for Pittsburgh fans, but there has been nothing on the situation in Pittsburgh. Granted the story was speculative, but the angle was that Don Hoak could be managing the Pirates in 1969.

Hoak, now guiding the Pirate farm team in Salem, Va., has his club far in first place. He says he is interested in managing anywhere in the majors. The Philadelphia writer did the speculating that Hoak might replace Larry Shepard.

Such a story in Pittsburgh would be dynamite. There is no question but that the Pirates have been a big disappointment in 1968. Injuries to key players, notably Jim Bunning, Roberto Clemente and Gene Alley, have had a lot to do with the failure of the Pirates. Shepard can do nothing about these. But there have been several times during the season when it seemed to the average fan that Shepard made some managerial goofs.

If Joe Brown thinks that Shepard has made mistakes, regardless of any injuries, then Hoak just might come to Pittsburgh in 1969. After all, Brown was the one who gave Hoak the Salem job after the former Pirate had been fired by the Phillies as a coach at the end of last season. Of course, there is speculation in some quarters that Joe Brown might not return as Pirate general manager if the Pirates stage another second-division finish.

BERNIE ALLEN'S average has dropped to .245, but the East Liverpool secondbaseman did get a key RBI single as the Washington Senators edged the Boston Red Sox Saturday.

MIKE SHROADES, son of Mrs. Luella Shroades of 315 W. 3rd St., is a member of the Warriors baseball team which recently won the 8th Army (Korea) championship for the third year in a row. Spec. 4 Shroades is a graduate of Oak Glen High School. He plays second base and the outfield.

Harrelson Hitting Again

Indians Win Twinbill; Orioles Beat Tigers 5-1

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Hawk is making lazy circles on the bases again . . . but he won't take credit for his latest swoop.

"There's only two words you need to know: Bobby Doerr. He did it again," said Ken "Hawk" Harrelson Sunday after his two-run ninth inning homer swept the Boston Red Sox past the Washington Senators 10-8.

Harrelson, who stroked a single and double in addition to his 23rd homer, went on to explain that Doerr, a Red Sox coach, had found a flaw in his swing and helped pull him out of a brief batting slump.

"That's the first time I've hit a ball like that in a week and a half," said the slugging outfielder, who has connected for 13 game-winning hits—seven of them homers—this season.

Orioles Win 5-1

In other American League action Sunday Baltimore salvaged the finale of a three-game series with first place Detroit 5-1 behind Dave McNally's three-hitter; Cleveland swept a doubleheader from the New York Yankees 3-2 and 4-1; Oakland nipped Minnesota 4-3 and the Chicago White Sox edged California 2-1.

Harrelson, who equaled his previous season home run high with the ninth inning blast off Bob Humphreys at Washington, said he'd taken extra post-game batting practice Saturday after Doerr spotted him opening his left shoulder and dropping his right during a 3-for-20 tailspin at the plate.

"I thought it was my hands," Harrelson said. "It wasn't. I tried five different hand positions. Then Bobby said, 'Don't worry about your hands. Drive your shoulders toward the pitcher and your hands will be all right.'"

Thus enlightened, the Hawk punched a single and scored a run in the fifth inning Sunday and doubled in the seventh as the Red Sox tallied twice for an 8-8 deadlock. Carl Yastrzemski opened the ninth with a single and Harrelson hit Humphreys' next pitch into the left field bullpen.

Leads The League

The homer boosted Harrelson's batting average to .292—second best in the league. He leads the majors with 74 runs batted in.

McNally, who has won five straight, blanked the Tigers until Willie Horton hit his 26th homer with two out in the ninth. Frank Robinson's tworun homer keyed a 10-hit Baltimore attack that moved the second place Orioles within 6½ games of Detroit.

The Indians snapped a four-game losing string and surged within seven games of the league leaders as right-handers Luis Tiant and Stan Williams, backed by five bases-empty homers, stymied the Yankees.

Home runs by Lou Johnson, Joe Azcue and Tommy Harper gave Tiant his 17th victory against six losses. Tiant hurled a five-hitter and struck out 10. Williams, 8-5, scattered 10 hits in the nightcap while Duke Sims and Larry Brown homered for Cleveland.

Pitcher Jim Nash broke a 1-1 fifth inning knot at Oakland with his second homer of the year, touching off a three-run burst that carried the A's past the Twins. Bob Allison's two-run homer in the ninth chased Nash, but reliever Paul Lindblad protected the Athletics' edge.

The White Sox managed only three hits at Anaheim, but Pete Ward's two-run single in the first inning was enough to get by the Angels, who have dropped five in a row. Winning pitcher Jack Fisher scattered eight hits, including a homer by Rick Reichardt, before getting eighth inning relief help from Wilbur Wood.

Ken Still Second

Dan Sikes Shoots 64, Wins Minnesota Golf

By LEW FERGUSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Dan Sikes may not be clairvoyant, but he had that winning feeling even before the tournament started.

At any rate, he had a lot going for him the past week, which he climaxed with a one-stroke victory Sunday to win the $20,000 top money in the Minnesota Golf Classic.

The big payday pushed Sikes' earnings for the year to $76,046 and enabled him to leap from 17th to seventh on the PGA money standings for 1968 — ahead of such luminaries as Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Frank Beard, who chose not to compete here.

Sikes, from Jacksonville, Fla., beat young Ken Still with a 12-under par 272 over Keller Golf Course, which plays to a par 71. Still, who won $12,000, was tied for the lead until he took a bogey on the 15th hole of the final round Sunday. It was the fifth tournament in which the Tacoma, Wash., pro has been the bridesmaid.

Sikes had a final-round 64, while Still shot a 68 for his 273.

"On the plane coming here," Sikes explained after his victory, "I said I felt I was building up to where I could win a tournament. You can feel it building up."

However, Sikes admitted he needed a lift—and he got it in a torrid first nine holes Sunday. He shot seven birdies and one bogey for a six-under 30 on the first nine.

Sikes was four strokes behind co-leaders Pete Brown and Lou Graham starting Sunday's last round.

Still, who continues to find that big pot of gold elusive to capture on the pro tour, was happy with his $12,000 second-place money. "That will pay the bills," he quipped. "Actually, I'm not too upset. In a tournament this close, it was bound to be decided by one stroke."

McBean's Grand Slam Leads Bucs Over Cards

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's got to be a great day for a pitcher when he survives a 13-hit attack by the National League leading St. Louis Cardinals, beats them 7-1—and also hits a grand slam home run for good measure.

But it could have been even better for Pittsburgh's Al McBean. Much better.

"I didn't know the bases were loaded when I hit the home run," McBean said Sunday. "I knew there were runners on base and was figuring I could help myself by getting a hit.

"But if I had known when I hit it that it was a grand slam, you really would have thought I'm a hot dog. I probably would have been jumping in the air when I passed first base and would have gone around the bases hopping like a jackrabbit."

Cubs Win Twice

Elsewhere in the National League, the Chicago Cubs beat the Los Angeles Dodgers twice, 8-3 and 1-0, Philadelphia stopped Atlanta 3-0 on Larry Jackson's three-hitter, Jim Maloney and Clay Carroll combined to hurl Cincinnati to a one-hit 5-3 triumph over the New York Mets and Juan Marichal singled home the winning run and gained his 19th victory as San Francisco outlasted Houston 4-2 in 11 innings.

McBean got his grand slam with two out in the fifth inning. After a single by Roberto Clemente and walks to Manny Mota and Jerry May, McBean hit the first pitch from Larry Jaster over the left field wall.

The Pirates had taken a 3-1 lead in the second on Clemente's triple, Donn Clendenon's ninth homer, Mota's double and Maury Wills' single.

The Cubs' sweep of Los Angeles put them in a virtual tie with San Francisco for fourth place and came before a home town crowd of 42,261, largest in 20 years, lured by a streak that has seen the Bruins win 17 of 23 games.

Drysdale Loses

Billy Williams doubled to touch off a four-run fourth inning off Don Drysdale in the opener and then slammed a fifth-inning homer. The eight runs were the most scored against Drysdale in more than two years.

Ken Holtzman struck out 10 and hurled a four-hitter in the nightcap. The Cubs scored in the fifth on Al Spangler's single and Randy Hundley's double.

The double defeat dropped the Dodgers deeper into ninth place. They have lost 31 of 44 games since a seven-game winning streak put them in second place June 9.

Jackson, a 37-year-old right-hander, pitched hitless ball for 5 2-3 innings as the Phillies shut out Atlanta for the second straight day. Tony Taylor paced the attack with three doubles and scored twice.

Marichal singled home the tie-breaking run with two out in the 11th inning after Jim Davenport singled and moved to third on a sacrifice and ground ball. A walk and Ty Cline's single provided an insurance run.

Sports Whirled

Sometimes you can find out more about what's going on in your home area by going away.

A story in the Philadelphia Bulletin yesterday had quite a bit of interest for Pittsburgh fans, but there has been nothing on the situation in Pittsburgh. Granted the story was speculative, but the angle was that Don Hoak could be managing the Pirates in 1969.

Hoak, now guiding the Pirate farm team in Salem, Va., has his club far in first place. He says he is interested in managing anywhere in the majors. The Philadelphia writer did the speculating that Hoak might replace Larry Shepard.

Such a story in Pittsburgh would be dynamite. There is no question but that the Pirates have been a big disappointment in 1968. Injuries to key players, notably Jim Bunning, Roberto Clemente and Gene Alley, have had a lot to do with the failure of the Pirates. Shepard can do nothing about these. But there have been several times during the season when it seemed to the average fan that Shepard made some managerial goofs.

If Joe Brown thinks that Shepard has made mistakes, regardless of any injuries, then Hoak just might come to Pittsburgh in 1969. After all, Brown was the one who gave Hoak the Salem job after the former Pirate had been fired by the Phillies as a coach at the end of last season. Of course, there is speculation in some quarters that Joe Brown might not return as Pirate general manager if the Pirates stage another second-division finish.

BERNIE ALLEN'S average has dropped to .245, but the East Liverpool secondbaseman did get a key RBI single as the Washington Senators edged the Boston Red Sox Saturday.

Harrelson Hitting Again

Indians Win Twinbill; Orioles Beat Tigers 5-1

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Hawk is making lazy circles on the bases again . . . but he won't take credit for his latest swoop.

"There's only two words you need to know: Bobby Doerr. He did it again," said Ken "Hawk" Harrelson Sunday after his two-run ninth inning homer swept the Boston Red Sox past the Washington Senators 10-8.

Harrelson, who stroked a single and double in addition to his 23rd homer, went on to explain that Doerr, a Red Sox coach, had found a flaw in his swing and helped pull him out of a brief batting slump.

"That's the first time I've hit a ball like that in a week and a half," said the slugging outfielder, who has connected for 13 game-winning hits—seven of them homers—this season.

Orioles Win 5-1

In other American League action Sunday Baltimore salvaged the finale of a three-game series with first place Detroit 5-1 behind Dave McNally's three-hitter; Cleveland swept a doubleheader from the New York Yankees 3-2 and 4-1; Oakland nipped Minnesota 4-3 and the Chicago White Sox edged California 2-1.

Harrelson, who equaled his previous season home run high with the ninth inning blast off Bob Humphreys at Washington, said he'd taken extra post-game batting practice Saturday after Doerr spotted him opening his left shoulder and dropping his right during a 3-for-20 tailspin at the plate.

"I thought it was my hands," Harrelson said. "It wasn't. I tried five different hand positions. Then Bobby said, 'Don't worry about your hands. Drive your shoulders toward the pitcher and your hands will be all right.'"

Thus enlightened, the Hawk punched a single and scored a run in the fifth inning Sunday and doubled in the seventh as the Red Sox tallied twice for an 8-8 deadlock. Carl Yastrzemski opened the ninth with a single and Harrelson hit Humphreys' next pitch into the left field bullpen.

Leads The League

The homer boosted Harrelson's batting average to .292—second best in the league. He leads the majors with 74 runs batted in.

McNally, who has won five straight, blanked the Tigers until Willie Horton hit his 26th homer with two out in the ninth. Frank Robinson's tworun homer keyed a 10-hit Baltimore attack that moved the second place Orioles within 6½ games of Detroit.

The Indians snapped a four-game losing string and surged within seven games of the league leaders as right-handers Luis Tiant and Stan Williams, backed by five bases-empty homers, stymied the Yankees.

Home runs by Lou Johnson, Joe Azcue and Tommy Harper gave Tiant his 17th victory against six losses. Tiant hurled a five-hitter and struck out 10. Williams, 8-5, scattered 10 hits in the nightcap while Duke Sims and Larry Brown homered for Cleveland.

Pitcher Jim Nash broke a 1-1 fifth inning knot at Oakland with his second homer of the year, touching off a three-run burst that carried the A's past the Twins. Bob Allison's two-run homer in the ninth chased Nash, but reliever Paul Lindblad protected the Athletics' edge.

The White Sox managed only three hits at Anaheim, but Pete Ward's two-run single in the first inning was enough to get by the Angels, who have dropped five in a row. Winning pitcher Jack Fisher scattered eight hits, including a homer by Rick Reichardt, before getting eighth inning relief help from Wilbur Wood.

Ken Still Second

Dan Sikes Shoots 64, Wins Minnesota Golf

By LEW FERGUSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Dan Sikes may not be clairvoyant, but he had that winning feeling even before the tournament started.

At any rate, he had a lot going for him the past week, which he climaxed with a one-stroke victory Sunday to win the $20,000 top money in the Minnesota Golf Classic.

The big payday pushed Sikes' earnings for the year to $76,046 and enabled him to leap from 17th to seventh on the PGA money standings for 1968 — ahead of such luminaries as Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Frank Beard, who chose not to compete here.

Sikes, from Jacksonville, Fla., beat young Ken Still with a 12-under par 272 over Keller Golf Course, which plays to a par 71. Still, who won $12,000, was tied for the lead until he took a bogey on the 15th hole of the final round Sunday. It was the fifth tournament in which the Tacoma, Wash., pro has been the bridesmaid.

Sikes had a final-round 64, while Still shot a 68 for his 273.

"On the plane coming here," Sikes explained after his victory, "I said I felt I was building up to where I could win a tournament. You can feel it building up."

However, Sikes admitted he needed a lift—and he got it in a torrid first nine holes Sunday. He shot seven birdies and one bogey for a six-under 30 on the first nine.

Sikes was four strokes behind co-leaders Pete Brown and Lou Graham starting Sunday's last round.

Still, who continues to find that big pot of gold elusive to capture on the pro tour, was happy with his $12,000 second-place money. "That will pay the bills," he quipped. "Actually, I'm not too upset. In a tournament this close, it was bound to be decided by one stroke."

McBean's Grand Slam Leads Bucs Over Cards

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's got to be a great day for a pitcher when he survives a 13-hit attack by the National League leading St. Louis Cardinals, beats them 7-1—and also hits a grand slam home run for good measure.

But it could have been even better for Pittsburgh's Al McBean. Much better.

"I didn't know the bases were loaded when I hit the home run," McBean said Sunday. "I knew there were runners on base and was figuring I could help myself by getting a hit.

"But if I had known when I hit it that it was a grand slam, you really would have thought I'm a hot dog. I probably would have been jumping in the air when I passed first base and would have gone around the bases hopping like a jackrabbit."

Cubs Win Twice

Elsewhere in the National League, the Chicago Cubs beat the Los Angeles Dodgers twice, 8-3 and 1-0, Philadelphia stopped Atlanta 3-0 on Larry Jackson's three-hitter, Jim Maloney and Clay Carroll combined to hurl Cincinnati to a one-hit 5-3 triumph over the New York Mets and Juan Marichal singled home the winning run and gained his 19th victory as San Francisco outlasted Houston 4-2 in 11 innings.

McBean got his grand slam with two out in the fifth inning. After a single by Roberto Clemente and walks to Manny Mota and Jerry May, McBean hit the first pitch from Larry Jaster over the left field wall.

The Pirates had taken a 3-1 lead in the second on Clemente's triple, Donn Clendenon's ninth homer, Mota's double and Maury Wills' single.

The Cubs' sweep of Los Angeles put them in a virtual tie with San Francisco for fourth place and came before a home town crowd of 42,261, largest in 20 years, lured by a streak that has seen the Bruins win 17 of 23 games.

Drysdale Loses

Billy Williams doubled to touch off a four-run fourth inning off Don Drysdale in the opener and then slammed a fifth-inning homer. The eight runs were the most scored against Drysdale in more than two years.

Ken Holtzman struck out 10 and hurled a four-hitter in the nightcap. The Cubs scored in the fifth on Al Spangler's single and Randy Hundley's double.

The double defeat dropped the Dodgers deeper into ninth place. They have lost 31 of 44 games since a seven-game winning streak put them in second place June 9.

Jackson, a 37-year-old right-hander, pitched hitless ball for 5 2-3 innings as the Phillies shut out Atlanta for the second straight day. Tony Taylor paced the attack with three doubles and scored twice.

Marichal singled home the tie-breaking run with two out in the 11th inning after Jim Davenport singled and moved to third on a sacrifice and ground ball. A walk and Ty Cline's single provided an insurance run.

Lion QB Munson Injured; Hardy Balks At Trade

By BOB GREN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jerry Hillebrand is a St. Louis Cardinal again, Detroit quarterback Bill Nunson is a hospital patient and Kevin Hardy, well, he's still just meditating.

Hillebrand, a linebacker, had been sent to the Minnesota Vikings to complete a deal which recently sent safety Brady Keys to the Cardinals.

But the Vikings announced Sunday that Hillebrand, who has been hampered by knee trouble, failed to pass his physical and was being returned to the Cardinals.

A Viking spokesman said the Cardinals now must give up another player or a high draft choice.

Munson Due Surgery

Munson, obtained in an offseason trade and now the Lions' No. 1 quarterback, was scheduled to undergo an operation today for removal of a bone growth in his right leg. He'll be out of action for at least two weeks.

Karl Sweetan and rookie Greg Barton will alternate at quarterback for the Lions' first exhibition game, Aug. 5.

And Hardy, ordered by Football Commissioner Pete Roezlle to report to the San Francisco 49ers as partial payment for the Saints' signing of Dave Parks, remained in the New Orleans Saints training camp at San Diego, Calif., Sunday.

"I guess I'll just have to meditate," he said.

Parks, a veteran receiver, played out his option with the 49ers last season, then signed on with the Saints last week. As payment, Rozelle ordered the Saints to give up Hardy, a rookie but highly prized plus their No. 1 draft choice for 1969.

Hardy was greatly upset.

Hardy's 'Confused'

"I don't know what I can do," he said. "If Rozelle tells you to jump, I guess you're supposed to jump. But I haven't been around here long enough to jump. I am confused by it all and don't know what I want to do. Perhaps I'll get myself a lawyer. I just don't know."

The Atlanta Falcons signed two key players, fullback Junior Coffey and halfback Perry Lee Dunn, leaving 11 veteran unsigned.

The Pittsburgh Steelers reported that Bob Wade, a cornerback, suffered a knee injury in Saturday's scrimmage and now is on crutches.

Miami put seven free agents and 12th round draft choice, tackle Paul Paxton, on waivers. Coach George Wilson said he originally had planned to cut 15, but changed his mind after the Dolphins' scrimmage Saturday.

The Boston Patriots released rookie Ron Persuitte when three veterans returned to camp after completing their National Guard summer training. They are center Jon Morris, guard Karl Singer and fullback Bob Cappadona.

Al Unser Wins Two At Langhorne

LANGHORNE, Pa. (AP) — Racing car driver Al Unser was out of gas at the end of his superchagred run at the record books, but hardly anyone noticed.

Unser, the brilliant diver from Albuquerque, N.M., piloted his rear-engine ford to a doubleheader victory Sunday in the U.S. Auto Club race for championship cars at the Langhorne Speedway.

The second victory was a world record for 100 miles on a one-mile speedway—48 minutes, 2.89 seconds—but Unser thought he was lucky to finish it.

"I was sure lucky because the fuel tank developed a leak at the end," said Unser. "In fact, I don't think I had any gas left when I took the safety lap."

Unser managed to limp home in an average speed of 122.328 smashing the old mark held by Lloyd Ruby, who covered the distance in 52 minutes, 55.16 seconds on June 18, 1967.

The winner led all the way in the second race, romping home ahead of Bud Tingelstad, of Hawthorne, Calif.; Jim Malloy of Denver, Colo.; Bill Vukovich, Jr., of Fresno, Calif., and Wally Dallenbach of East Brunswick, N.J.

Unser won by a full lap over Tinglestad.

Woody Herman Is Band At Waterford Wednesday

Woody Herman, one of America's greatest big band names, will make a one-night stand at Waterford Park race track Wednesday.

Track president James F. Edwards signed the band for the special engagement, and there will be dancing from 10 p.m. until 2 a.m. the next morning.

And, best of all, Edwards has ordered the grandstand gates thrown open to the public that night so that everyone can have the opportunity of seeing, hearing and dancing to the music of the famed Herd.

Additionally, the track will card a 10-race program, with post time for the first race slated for 7:15 p.m.

When Woody and his Herd played Basin Street West in Los Angeles recently, crowds were lined up around the block waiting to get in.

While you can bet that Wednesday nighters will get to hear his now famous "Caldonia", and maybe "Apple Honey", Woody will be playing many of the new sounds.

Because he flatly refuses to play strictly out of the past, Woody Herman has kept in stride with the times.

Tri-staters won't have another chance to see Woody Herman this year, and it's a rare opportunity when the band can be heard absolutely free of charge.

Waterford Park officials anticipate a good crowd for the free show, but emphasized that there would be ample room in the spacious plant to accommodate comfortably all who want to dance the night away to the music of one of the really great big band sounds.

Single Man Yacht Race Completed

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — The single-handed yacht race from Plymouth, England, to this old New England port is over.

Jester, a 25-foot modified folk boat sailed by Michael W. Richey of Sussex, England, became the 19th, and last, craft to cross the finish line Sunday in beating the official deadline of July 31.

With 16 of the 35 starters forced out of the race for reasons varying from sinking to mast damage, Jester was the only yacht awaited in the trans-Atlantic voyage.

Then, Richey skippered his small boat across the finish—57 days, 10 hours and 13 minutes after the start. Richey, director of the Institute of Navigation in London, said he had sailed a southern route figured by persons in the 19th century.

The first finisher was the Sir Thomas Lipton, which arrived in Newport 25 days, 20 hours, 35 minutes after leaving England.

Cincinnati Defensive Unit Tough

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — The defensive unit of the Cincinnati Bengals sparkled again Saturday as the new entry to the American Football League held a 70-minute "game condition" scrimmage.

In scrimmages so far, the defense has proved to be tough and has outplayed the offense, limiting it to short gains both in the air and on the ground.

But the real test for the defense begins soon, as the Bengals play their first game ever — an exhibition contest against the Kansas City Chiefs at Cincinnati Saturday night.

"Defensive things were pretty brisk out there," said Coach-General Manager Paul Brown following the scrimmage which resultd in the offense's scoring two touchdowns.

"It was tough going to our left, and that's where Buncom was," Brown said in praising the play of big linebacker Frank Buncom.

John Stofa, the only experienced quarterback on the team, failed to get the team rolling. Dewey Warren, a rookie from Tennessee, finally managed to get the offense in gear although Brown had taken out many of the first line defensive men.

Brown also lauded two other defensive starters — defensive tackle Bill Kindickers from Alabama A&M and linebacker Al Beauchamp of Southern University.

Brown said Kindricks has "the physical equipment" and "he made it tough against any guard we put in there." Beauchamp "on the other side was tough too," Brown added.

Kicker Joe Hoher, at 170, is the lightest player on the Steeler squad.

Paul Warfield averaged 21.9 yards a pass reception last season.

Chester Tops Wellsville In Tri-County

Chester, cruising along in first place in the Tri-County League, whipped Wellsville 7-1 yesterday at Chester.

Reviewer, Dark Mirage Win Big Stakes Races

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Reviewer has posted his first rave notice, and it appears once again that trainer Eddie Neloy might have the hit 2-year-old thoroughbred show in the nation.

The Neloy-trained Ogden Phipps' juvenile colt came from off the pace Saturday for a two-length victory in the $114,725 Sapling Stakes at Monmouth Park.

It was the third victory in as many starts for Neloy's newest leading man and his first stakes triumph.

In beating Night Invader to the wire, with Al Hattab Third, Reviewer stepped the six furlongs of the Sapling under Braulio Baeza in 1:10 2-5.

While Reviewer was making his debut in the winner's circle of a stakes race, the same practice was becoming old hat to Lloyd I. Miller's Dark Mirage.

The sensational little 3-year-old filly chalked up her ninth consecutive victory, the last eight of them stakes, by winning the $57,950 Delaware Oaks at Delaware Park.

Carrying top weight of 121 pounds, including Manny Ycaza, Dark Mirage completed the 1⅛ miles in 1:50 2-5, an easy two lengths ahead of Sale Day, with Singing Rain third and Inge last.

Because of the small field, Delaware Park management received permission from the Delaware State Racing Commission to make the Oaks a betless exhibition.

Elsewhere Saturday, Meadowhill's More Scents won the $58,800 Tidel Handicap at Aqueduct, Racing Room scored in the $53,900 Citation Handicap at Arlington Park, Broad Shadows took the $15,000 Oceanside Handicap at Del Mar and Amber Beat won the $15,000 Keene Handicap at Rockingham Park.

This week shapes up as big one at Arlington Park, with the $50,000-added Pucker Up Handicap for 3-year-old fillies Wednesday, the $50,000-added Arch Ward Stakes for 2-year-olds Friday and the $100,000-added American Derby for 3-year-olds Saturday.

Also on next Saturday's national program are the $100,000-added Delaware Handicap for fillies and mares at Delaware Park, the $75,000-added Monmouth Invitational Handicap for 3-year-olds at Monmouth and the $50,000-added Whitney for 4-year-olds at Saratoga, which opened its meeting today.

BATTING — Lee May, Reds, walloped two homers, giving him three in two games, and drove in three runs as Cincinnati beat the New York Mets 5-3.

Ashe Blasts Reisson In Pennsylvania Net

HAVERFORD, Pa. (AP) — Marty Riessen sang his swan song to the amateur tennis world, but he was just a sitting duck for Arthur Ashe.

Ashe, No. 2-ranked player in the country and a U.S. Davis Cup team member, simply outclassed Riessen 6-2, 6-3, 6-3 Sunday to win the men's singles competition of the 69th annual Pennsylvania Lawn Tennis Championship.

After the day's singles and doubles play concluded the week-long tourney at the century-old Merion Cricket Club, Riessen, 26, of Evanston, Ill., turned professional. He signed a two-year contract with World Championship Tennis, Inc., the Lamar Hunt group called the Handsome Eight.

In women's competition Sunday, Mary Ann Eisel of St. Louis and Valerie Ziegenfuss of San Diego won the doubles championship, scoring a 6-3, 6-3 victory over the Australia team of Karen Krantzcke and Helen Gourlay.

The men's final round doubles match wound up in a draw after four hours of play. The match between Ashe and Riessen and Charlies Pasarell of Puerto Rico and Clark Graebner of New York was tied at two sets apiece when halted by darkness.

Ashe and Riessen won the first two sets, 9-7 and 10-8, and Pasarell and Graebner took the next two sets, 6-2 and 30-28.

Carol Mann Wins Title In Canada

TORONTO (AP) — Statuesque Carol Mann credits her extra length off the tee for her victory in the $20,000 Women's Open Golf Championship.

"If it hadn't been for those reachable par fives, I would have been in trouble," said the striking, 6-foot-3 blonde, one of the longest hitters on the Ladies PGA tour.

She shot a final round 71, two under par, Saturday for a 54-hole total of 213, six strokes ahead of second place Judy Kimball. It was the third consecutive victory for the slim, 155-pound Miss Mann and her seventh of the year.

The tournament, played on the 6,448 yard Bayview Golf and Country Club layout, is the only Canadian stop on the tour.

"The course is a couple of hundred yards longer than what we usually play," said Miss Mann, who used irons for her second shot to the greens on the par five holes.

The $3,000 first prize purse raised her season earnings to more than $28,000.

Gerda Whalen of West Germany and Kathy Whitworth tied for third with 221s. Beth Stone, Pam Barnett and Gloria Ehret followed at 222.

Lion QB Munson Injured; Hardy Balks At Trade

By BOB GREN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jerry Hillebrand is a St. Louis Cardinal again, Detroit quarterback Bill Nunson is a hospital patient and Kevin Hardy, well, he's still just meditating.

Hillebrand, a linebacker, had been sent to the Minnesota Vikings to complete a deal which recently sent safety Brady Keys to the Cardinals.

But the Vikings announced Sunday that Hillebrand, who has been hampered by knee trouble, failed to pass his physical and was being returned to the Cardinals.

A Viking spokesman said the Cardinals now must give up another player or a high draft choice.

Munson Due Surgery

Munson, obtained in an off-season trade and now the Lions' No. 1 quarterback, was scheduled to undergo an operation today for removal of a bone growth in his right leg. He'll be out of action for at least two weeks.

Karl Sweetan and rookie Greg Barton will alternate at quarterback for the Lions' first exhibition game, Aug. 5.

And Hardy, ordered by Football Commissioner Pete Roezlle to report to the San Francisco 49ers as partial payment for the Saints' signing of Dave Parks, remained in the New Orleans Saints training camp at San Diego, Calif., Sunday.

"I guess I'll just have to meditate," he said.

Parks, a veteran receiver, played out his option with the 49ers last season, then signed on with the Saints last week. As payment, Rozelle ordered the Saints to give up Hardy, a rookie but highly prized plus their No. 1 draft choice for 1969.

Hardy was greatly upset.

Hardy's 'Confused'

"I don't know what I can do," he said. "If Rozelle tells you to jump, I guess you're supposed to jump. But I haven't been around here long enough to jump. I am confused by it all and don't know what I want to do. Perhaps I'll get myself a lawyer. I just don't know."

The Atlanta Falcons signed two key players, fullback Junior Coffey and halfback Perry Lee Dunn, leaving 11 veteran unsigned.

The Pittsburgh Steelers reported that Bob Wade, a cornerback, suffered a knee injury in Saturday's scrimmage and now is on crutches.

Miami put seven free agents and 12th round draft choice, tackle Paul Paxton, on waivers. Coach George Wilson said he originally had planned to cut 15, but changed his mind after the Dolphins' scrimmage Saturday.

Al Unser Wins Two At Langhorne

LANGHORNE, Pa. (AP) — Racing car driver Al Unser was out of gas at the end of his superchagred run at the record books, but hardly anyone noticed.

Unser, the brilliant diver from Albuquerque, N.M., piloted his rear-engine ford to a doubleheader victory Sunday in the U.S. Auto Club race for championship cars at the Langhorne Speedway.

The second victory was a world record for 100 miles on a one-mile speedway—48 minutes, 2.89 seconds—but Unser thought he was lucky to finish it.

"I was sure lucky because the fuel tank developed a leak at the end," said Unser, "In fact, I don't think I had any gas left when I took the safety lap."

Unser managed to limp home in an average speed of 122.328 smashing the old mark held by Lloyd Ruby, who covered the distance in 52 minutes, 55.16 seconds on June 18, 1967.

The winner led all the way in the second race, romping home ahead of Bud Tingelstad, of Hawthorne, Calif.; Jim Malloy of Denver, Colo.; Bill Vukovich, Jr., of Fresno, Calif., and Wally Dallenbach of East Brunswick, N.J.

Unser won by a full lap over Tinglestad.

Woody Herman Is Band At Waterford Wednesday

Woody Herman, one of America's greatest big band names, will make a one-night stand at Waterford Park race track Wednesday.

Track president James F. Edwards signed the band for the special engagement, and there will be dancing from 10 p.m. until 2 a.m. the next morning.

And, best of all, Edwards has ordered the grandstand gates thrown open to the public that night so that everyone can have the opportunity of seeing, hearing and dancing to the music of the famed Herd.

Additionally, the track will card a 10-race program, with post time for the first race slated for 7:15 p.m.

When Woody and his Herd played Basin Street West in Los Angeles recently, crowds were lined up around the block waiting to get in.

While you can bet that Wednesday nighters will get to hear his now famous "Caldonia", and maybe "Apple Honey", Woody will be playing many of the new sounds.

Because he flatly refuses to play strictly out of the past, Woody Herman has kept in stride with the times.

Tri-staters won't have another chance to see Woody Herman this year, and it's a rare opportunity when the band can be heard absolutely free of charge.

Waterford Park officials anticipate a good crowd for the free show, but emphasized that there would be ample room in the spacious plant to accommodate comfortably all who want to dance the night away to the music of one of the really great big band sounds.

Single Man Yacht Race Completed

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — The single-handed yacht race from Plymouth, England, to this old New England port is over.

Jester, a 25-foot modified folk boat sailed by Michael W. Richey of Sussex, England, became the 19th, and last, craft to cross the finish line Sunday in beating the official deadline of July 31.

With 16 of the 35 starters forced out of the race for reasons varying from sinking to mast damage, Jester was the only yacht awaited in the trans-Atlantic voyage.

Then, Richey skippered his small boat across the finish—57 days, 10 hours and 13 minutes after the start. Richey, director of the Institute of Navigation in London, said he had sailed a southern route figured by persons in the 19th century.

The first finisher was the Sir Thomas Lipton, which arrived in Newport 25 days, 20 hours, 35 minutes after leaving England.

Cincinnati Defensive Unit Tough

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — The defensive unit of the Cincinnati Bengals sparkled again Saturday as the new entry to the American Football League held a 70-minute "game condition" scrimmage.

In scrimmages so far, the defense has proved to be tough and has outplayed the offense, limiting it to short gains both in the air and on the ground.

But the real test for the defense begins soon, as the Bengals play their first game ever — an exhibition contest against the Kansas City Chiefs at Cincinnati Saturday night.

"Defensive things were pretty brisk out there," said Coach-General Manager Paul Brown following the scimmrage which resultd in the offense's scoring two touchdowns.

"It was tough going to our left, and that's where Buncom was," Brown said in praising the play of big linebacker Frank Buncom.

John Stofa, the only experienced quarterback on the team, failed to get the team rolling. Dewey Warren, a rookie from Tennessee, finally managed to get the offense in gear although Brown had taken out many of the first line defensive men.

Brown also lauded two other defensive starters — defensive tackle Bill Kindickers from Alabama A&M and linebacker Al Beauchamp of Southern University.

Brown said Kindricks has "the physical equipment" and "he made it tough against any guard we put in there." Beauchamp "on the other side was tough too," Brown added.

Kicker Joe Hoher, at 170, is the lightest player on the Steeler squad.

Paul Warfield averaged 21.9 yards a pass reception last season.

Graham Started Season After Loss In '67 Finale

By IRA BERKOW
NEA Sports Writer

WASHINGTON, D.C.—(NEA)—The glistening drops of sweat that meander down a forehead rivulet and plunk into the eye of a pro football player in summer camp are launched in winter.

For Coach Otto Graham's Washington Redskins, preparation for summer camp was begun precisely in the dusk of Sunday, Dec. 17, 1967, after a disappointnig loss to the New Orleans Saints, a neophyte expansion club.

Going into the game the Redskins, with a 5-5-3 record, had expected to become the first Washington team since 1955 to have a winning record. In 1966 Graham's first as a pro coach, he directed the Redskis to a .500 season.

So 1967 meant a backslide to Graham. What was even more irritating about the season was that 11 consecutive games went into the final two minutes before the outcome was decided. "And," said Graham, "the ball bounced the wrong way at the wrong time in too many of those situations."

So how does a coach dizzy with two - minute vertigo prepare for summer camp

"At the minute the final game of the previous season ends," said Graham. "The fellas played terrible football against the Saints. Right then, the coaches and I began an appraisal of every aspect of our operation. For eight hours a day, five days a week from then until summer camp, we analyzed the team under a microscope."

Graham and his staff examined their plays, their personnel, the practice sessions, the summer camp. The coaches scrutinized game films and, methodically over a period of months, graded each player on every play he made during the season. Did he make the tackle? Did he open the hole? Did he run the right pattern?

"So we go to camp without guesswork," said Graham. "If a fellow misses a play in practice, it is likely he'll miss it in a game, too. This year I plan to be very, very strict with my men as football players. I'm going to handle them like I would members of my household. If they don't empty the garbage can correctly, take them by the ear and have them do it over and over until they do it right.

"We're going to concentrate on 12 to 15 plays," he said. "That's all you really use in a game anyway.

Graham was a great quarterback for the Cleveland Browns under coach Paul Brown. He played 10 years and for 10 division champions. Understandably, much of his coaching techniques are carry - overs from the Brown system.

Prior to each season, Brown laboriously prepared a three-hour lecture to his players for the first day of summer camp. Graham's lecture is little more than one hour, but what is expected of the players, physically, mentally and morally, is similar.

Part of Brown's manuscript would read: "We don't want any butchers on this team. No T shirts in the dining hall. Don't eat with your elbows on the table and eat quietly. . .We intend to have good people because that's the kind that win the big ones. If you're a drinker or a chaser you'll weaken the team and we don't want you. . . Watch your dress, language and the company you keep."

Graham, too, demands that his players be "good Christians. I don't mean that they shuold get up on a soap box preaching. But that they should lead clean lives during the season."

Once they get to camp, Graham does not envision any players after the NFL strike trouble. "The strike stuff won't affect the team," he said. "Anyone who tries to give me problems, from the highest paid to the lowest, won't be around long."

Ron Snidow, Washington's veteran defensive end, added, "We're in a business. We understand we must be a cohesive unit. It's similar to labor, if there is dissension between employer and employed, that cuts down production. And all of us think we have a chance for the championship this year."

The Redskins may not attain the cleanest record in 1968, but they are sure to have the cleanest ears.

Oakland Methodist Whips Calvary 12-0

Oakland Free Methodist whipped Calvary Free Methodist 12-0 in a Church League slow pitch softball game Saturday night at Dixonville.

Dan Barton was the winning pitcher and Laughlin the loser. Barton, Rusty Smith and Rodney Hupp had three hits apiece for the winners, with Hupp having two homers.

Frenchman Wins Prix, One Killed

ZANDVOORT, Netherlands (AP) — France's Jean Pierre Beltoise drove his Matra Cosworth Ford to victory Sunday in the Grand Prix Formula 2 auto race marred by the death of Christ Lambert of Great Britain.

Lambert, 24-year-old chemistry graduate of Birmingham University, was killed outright when his Brabham Cosworth Ford collided wtih another auto, spun off the track, rolled over and crashed over the railing. The second driver wasn't hurt.

He was the third top British racer to die this year. Jim Clark of Scotland, a former world champion, lost his life on Germany's Hockenheim circuit in April and Mike Spence was killed in May while practicing for the Indianapolis 500.

Beltoise averaged 105 miles per hour and finished in one hour, 13 minutes, 52.18 seconds. France's Henri Pescarolo was second, also in a Matra, ahead of Richard Attwood of Britain, Silvio Moser of Switzerland and Eric Offenstadt of France, all in Tecno Cosworth Fords.

Big Perfecta At Waterford Saturday

Mask Right and Minabomb shocked Saturday's night's good crowd at Waterford Park when they combined for a $569 perfecta in the eighth race.

The race itself was one of the wildest ever seen at the tri-state track. As the field turned into the stretch, seven of the eight contestants were strung across the track fighting for the lead.

Mask Right, who was on the far outside, proved best of all at the end, but it took the never-failing eye of the photo finish camera to ascertain that he had managed to outfinish Minabomb and Runnin Mark.

Ridden by Ken Masters, Mask Right was worth $40.40, $14.40 and $6.40 across the board. Minabomb returned $11.60 and $8.60, while Runnin Mark was worth $7.40.

The winner was timed in 1:15 for the six furlongs.

The resulting 8-10 perfecta paid $107.20.

The Browns have six players from the Ohio State and five from Notre Dame on their 1968 training camp roster.

GEMS OF FRIENDSHIP

Two gemstones that are of special significance in August are the Peridot and the Sardonyx. Both of these gems are referred to by other names. Peridot might be called "evening emerald" and in very earliest times, was sometimes confused with the gemstones found on the "Island of Topazos" in the Red Sea. Another name, due to its yellow green color, was "Olivine."

Sardonyx is the red brown variety of chalcedony. The lighter red brown shade is called carnelian, with the darker brown being sard. This stone is often seen cut as seals and intaglios, since its relative hardness and opaque appearance lend itself well to carving. Queen Elizabeth of England gave Lord Essex a sardonyx ring carved with her seal, and he was instructed to send the ring to her should he ever need her intercession. While imprisoned in the Tower of London, he threw the ring out of the window with a note for the finder to deliver it to the Palace. Years later, the woman who found it told Queen Elizabeth that she had Essex's ring, but of course it was too late then to save him from be-heading.

There is a lovely legend around peridot which says: "Wear a peridot or for thee no conjugal felicity; the August-born without this stone must live un-loved and alone." While both stones are proper birthstones for this month, the gems still bestow their favors upon those of other signs. Most important, the peridot is an exceptionally lovely stone for every woman, while the sardonyx lends itself equally well to men's jewelry accessories.

Graham Started Season After Loss In '67 Finale

By IRA BERKOW
NEA Sports Writer

WASHINGTON, D.C.—(NEA)—The glistening drops of sweat that meander down a forehead rivulet and plunk into the eye of a pro football player in summer camp are launched in winter.

For Coach Otto Graham's Washington Redskins, preparation for summer camp was begun precisely in the dusk of Sunday, Dec. 17, 1967, after a disappointnig loss to the New Orleans Saints, a neophyte expansion club.

Going into the game the Redskins, with a 5-5-3 record, had expected to become the first Washington team since 1955 to have a winning record. In 1966 Graham's first as a pro coach, he directed the Redskis to a .500 season.

So 1967 meant a backslide to Graham. What was even more irritating about the season was that 11 consecutive games went into the final two minutes before the outcome was decided. "And," said Graham, "the ball bounced the wrong way at the wrong time in too many of those situations."

So how does a coach dizzy with two - minute vertigo prepare for summer camp

"At the minute the final game of the previous season ends," said Graham. "The fellas played terrible football against the Saints. Right then, the coaches and I began an appraisal of every aspect of our operation. For eight hours a day, five days a week from then until summer camp, we analyzed the team under a microscope."

Graham and his staff examined their plays, their personnel, the practice sessions, the summer camp. The coaches scrutinized game films and, methodically over a period of months, graded each player on every play he made during the season. Did he make the tackle? Did he open the hole? Did he run the right pattern?

"So we go to camp without guesswork," said Graham. "If a fellow misses a play in practice, it is likely he'll miss it in a game, too. This year I plan to be very, very strict with my men as football players. I'm going to handle them like I would members of my household. If they don't empty the garbage can correctly, take them by the ear and have them do it over and over until they do it right.

"We're going to concentrate on 12 to 15 plays," he said. "That's all you really use in a game anyway.

Graham was a great quarterback for the Cleveland Browns under coach Paul Brown. He played 10 years and for 10 division champions. Understandably, much of his coaching techniques are carry - overs from the Brown system.

Prior to each season, Brown laboriously prepared a three-hour lecture to his players for the first day of summer camp. Graham's lecture is little more than one hour, but what is expected of the players, physically, mentally and morally, is similar.

Part of Brown's manuscript would read: "We don't want any butchers on this team. No T shirts in the dining hall. Don't eat with your elbows on the table and eat quietly. . .We intend to have good people because that's the kind that win the big ones. If you're a drinker or a chaser you'll weaken the team and we don't want you. . . Watch your dress, language and the company you keep."

Graham, too, demands that his players be "good Christians. I don't mean that they shuold get up on a soap box preaching. But that they should lead clean lives during the season."

Once they get to camp, Graham does not envision any players after the NFL strike trouble. "The strike stuff won't affect the team," he said. "Anyone who tries to give me problems, from the highest paid to the lowest, won't be around long."

Ron Snidow, Washington's veteran defensive end, added, "We're in a business. We understand we must be a cohesive unit. It's similar to labor, if there is dissension between employer and employed, that cuts down production. And all of us think we have a chance for the championship this year."

The Redskins may not attain the cleanest record in 1968, but they are sure to have the cleanest ears.

Frenchman Wins Prix, One Killed

ZANDVOORT, Netherlands (AP) — France's Jean Pierre Beltoise drove his Matra Cosworth Ford to victory Sunday in the Grand Prix Formula 2 auto race marred by the death of Christ Lambert of Great Britain.

Lambert, 24-year-old chemistry graduate of Birmingham University, was killed outright when his Brabham Cosworth Ford collided wtih another auto, spun off the track, rolled over and crashed over the railing. The second driver wasn't hurt.

He was the third top British racer to die this year. Jim Clark of Scotland, a former world champion, lost his life on Germany's Hockenheim circuit in April and Mike Spence was killed in May while practicing for the Indianapolis 500.

Beltoise averaged 105 miles per hour and finished in one hour, 13 minutes, 52.18 seconds. France's Henri Pescarolo was second, also in a Matra, ahead of Richard Attwood of Britain, Silvio Moser of Switzerland and Eric Offenstadt of France, all in Tecno Cosworth Fords.

Big Perfecta At Waterford Saturday

Mask Right and Minabomb shocked Saturday's night's good crowd at Waterford Park when they combined for a $569 perfecta in the eighth race.

The race itself was one of the wildest ever seen at the tri-state track. As the field turned into the stretch, seven of the eight contestants were strung across the track fighting for the lead.

Mask Right, who was on the far outside, proved best of all at the end, but it took the never-failing eye of the photo finish camera to ascertain that he had managed to outfinish Minabomb and Runnin Mark.

Ridden by Ken Masters, Mask Right was worth $40.40, $14.40 and $6.40 across the board. Minabomb returned $11.60 and $8.60, while Runnin Mark was worth $7.40.

The winner was timed in 1:15 for the six furlongs.

In the night's sixth race, Fisherman's Reef ripped off six furlongs in 1:14 3-5, leaving Mighty Jinx and Motion Miss in his wake.

The resulting 8-10 perfecta paid $107.20.

The Browns have six players from the Ohio State and five from Notre Dame on their 1968 training camp roster.

GEMS OF FRIENDSHIP

Two gemstones that are of special significance in August are the Peridot and the Sardonyx. Both of these gems are referred to by other names. Peridot might be called "evening emerald" and in very earliest times, was sometimes confused with the gemstones found on the "Island of Topazos" in the Red Sea. Another name, due to its yellow green color, was "Olivine."

Sardonyx is the red brown variety of chalcedony. The lighter red brown shade is called carnelian, with the darker brown being sard. This stone is often seen cut as seals and intaglios, since its relative hardness and opaque appearance lend itself well to carving. Queen Elizabeth of England gave Lord Essex a sardonyx ring carved with her seal, and he was instructed to send the ring to her should he ever need her intercession. While imprisoned in the Tower of London, he threw the ring out of the window with a note for the finder to deliver it to the Palace. Years later, the woman who found it told Queen Elizabeth that she had Essex's ring, but of course it was too late then to save him from be-heading.

There is a lovely legend around peridot which says: "Wear a peridot or for thee no conjugal felicity; the August-born without this stone must live un-loved and alone." While both stones are proper birthstones for this month, the gems still bestow their favors upon those of other signs. Most important, the peridot is an exceptionally lovely stone for every woman, while the sardonyx lends itself equally well to men's jewelry accessories.

Airlines Offer Answers

WASHINGTON (AP) — On one recent, clear day, with beautiful flying weather, more than 20,000 passengers aboard 200 flights were delayed landing at New York's John F. Kennedy International Airport, most of them for an hour or more.

An early afternoon flight sat on the ground at Newark, N.J., waiting for takeoff clearance for three hours.

This kind of situation, once a rare exception, is now the rule.

The airlines estimate that delays due to traffic congestion are costing them $50 million a year in extra fuel, added crew time, and inefficient use of equipment.

In addition, annoyed and inconvenienced passengers are losing millions of dollars a year in productive time.

Billions Needed

Alan S. Boyd, secretary of transportation, has estimated that needed airport improvements and expansion will cost $6 billion, through 1975, and that the cost of bringing the airways navigation system up to date will be about $150 million a year for the next four or five years, in addition to current airways appropriations of about $500 million a year.

The Air Transport Association, representing the airline industry, has produced a summary of the air traffic congestion problem which answers some of the questions about long-range solutions to air congestion.

The industry answers do not touch upon demands by federal air traffc controllers for more manpower. The controllers launched a by-the-book safety campaign July 3 which has contributed to the current crisis of delays.

A bill before Congress would provide immediate relief for the manpower shortage. The government, the controllers and several industry groups also are trying to work out other short-range solutions.

Question: What's the basic problem?

Answer: The great increase air traffic. Airline passenger traffic has increased an average of 15 per cent a year for the past five years. While the U.S. population is increasing by about 7,000 a day, the airlines are adding more than 40,000 passengers a day.

Air Travel Grows

This is more than matched by the growth of private aviation which now accounts for almost 75 per cent of the landings and takeoffs at airports equipped with Federal Aviation Administration control towers. Private planes operated almost 23 million hours last year compared to five million for the airlines.

Q. What about the future traffic?

A. Airline traffic will triple by 1975, and the private aviation fleet will increase by about a third.

Q. What long-range solutions do the airlines propose?

A. Establishment of an Airport Development Trust Fund, financed by a 2 per cent increase in the passenger ticket tax. Resulting revenues would provide funds for airport expansion. Also, increased funding for airways, followed by consideration by Congress of the whole user-charge question. If a need should be found for user charges beyond the current 5 per cent ticket tax, the airlines will accept them under an arrangement to insure that all who use the system pay their fair share. At present, through the 5 per cent ticket tax recognized by Congress as a user charge, airline traffic generates $250 million in annual revenues. This is about equal to the 45 per cent share of the airways cost that the FAA says the airlines should bear.

Other Sources

Q. What of other users?

A. Through an aviation gasoline tax of two cents a gallon, private users paid about $7 million last year, or only 4.3 per cent of the $163 million the FAA considered their fair share in 1967. Many private plane users actually contribute no taxes whatsoever toward the cost of maintaining the airways system.

The 133 million passengers of the scheduled airlines are becoming increasingly aware of this disparity and are beginning to question why they must wait for landing clearance on equal footing with the man rich enough to buy his own plane but who is not paying an equal share of the airways' cost.

Q. What alternative is there to requiring all users to pay fair shares of the cost of modernizing airways and airports?

A. Perhaps serious thought should be given to establishing priorities for the use of these scarce resources, on the basis of public need and financial participation. Secretary Boyd said in Senate testimony last month, "The federal government has a greater interest in promoting the efficiency of the common-carrier system of air transportation than it does in promoting private air transportation and, where a choice must be made, the common-carrier system will receive preference."

Q. How can all users of the airways system be required to pay their fair share of the costs?

A. A first step might be a registration fee for private aircraft.

'Did Well,' Say Schweiker And Clark Of Debate

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Sen. Joseph S. Clark and his Republican opponent for the U.S. Senate seat, Congressman Richard S. Schweiker, both say they performed well in their second televised debate.

"I feel very good about it," said Schweiker. "Anytime I can get on statewide television and show the flip-flops of Joe Clark and how he treats the GIs as second class citizens, that's a big victory."

But Clark differed.

"There wasn't much doubt that I won," he said. "Of course I'm prejudiced. He didn't discuss the substance of foreign policy. He was not picking on what I've done on some relatively unimportant things."

The 30 - minute debate, bitter at times, dealt mainly with foreign and military affairs.

Schweiker claimed in the debate, which was televised in the studio of WTAE, that Clark voted to send aid to Egypt.

But Clark contended Schweiker was telling an untruth and said "if this wasn't a polite debate I'd describe it by a shorter word."

But Schweiker again insisted Clark voted to aid Egypt.

Said Clark, "You didn't tell the truth before and you're not telling it now. I'll back my record--and I mustn't get mad, must I on suporting Irsael against yours any day in the week."

The debate swung to the Vietnam war.

Clark favored an immediate ceasefire. Schweiker backed the present policies of President Johnson for pullbacks step-by-step by both sides.

Steel Slumps To 1968 Low

CLEVELAND (AP) — Raw steel production slumped last week to an estimated 2.5 million net tons—the lowest figure since October, 1967—down 121,000 tons from the preceding week, Steel Magazine said Monday.

By midnight Wednesday, when the United Steelworkers' contract expires and they are free to strike, the industry will have completed shipping strike - hedge tonnage and a "business drought" will begin, the metal-working weekly added.

Raw steel production during the first seven months of this year was a record 84.6 million tons, equivalent to an annual rate of 145 million tons, Steel added.

"However, nobody expects the year to hit that figure. It now appears that the year's total won't go over 130 million tons," the magazine said.

Analysts of some steel companies expect the steel business drought to run well into 1969 and predict next year's steel production will reach only 122 million tons, Steel said.

"In making their estimates they're expecting a long period of inventory reduction and plentifulness of imported steel," the magazine added.

Because of heavy stockpiling aided by the steel producers deferred payment plans, consumers will have little need for additional steel for some months yet, Steel said.

The magazine said in effect, a substantial chunk of the busines done by the U.S. Steel industry in the first seven months of this year was at the expense of the remainder of the year.

Steel's price composite on the No. 1 steelmaking grade scrap was $23.50 a gross ton last week, unchanged from the previous three weeks and the lowest figure in 19 years.

Tips Offered On Paint Use

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

Ride through any neighborhood where shingled houses are five or more years old and, without talking to anyone, you'll find decided differences of opinion on whether and how shingles should be finished.

That age specification is necessary because, in a new development, all the houses with shingles or shakes will have the same finish, or lack of it, as determined by the builder.

It is after home owners have lived with this type of exterior material for a while that they develop their own preferences.

You then will see shingles that have become silvery gray, some that have taken on a blackish appearance, some that have retained their natural color, some that are much darker but with no loss of grain and texture, and some that have been painted.

Should you purchase a shingled house that has been painted, you'll have to stay with the paint, although you can, of course, change the color if it doesn't suit you.

But you can't successfully use stain over paint. And removing the paint is a monumental job that even professionals usually will refuse to attempt.

If the shingles have been stained, bleached or coated with a preservative, they can be painted.

It is then important to use a primer formulated to prevent any of the initial coating from bleeding through the paint. It is equally important that the proper paint be used.

Your dealer probably will recommend an exterior latex or an acrylic. While some other types can be used, be sure that the label on the container says so.

When shingles or shakes have not been treated at all, you have a number of choices. Oil stains now come in a wide variety of colors, including pastels. Preservatives which have a clear finish are good in areas where there is a lot of dampness.

Bleaches give the wood the grayish look usually achieved only after a number of years. And almost any kind of exterior paint can be used, including latex, acrylic, alkyd and regular oil-base house paint.

If you purchase a new house with shingles or shakes, it's a good idea to find out from the builder exactly what, if anything, was used on the materials. Sometimes wood which appears to be in its natural state will have been treated before being brought in for use on your house.

Gang Breaks Windows During Wheeling Fire

WHEELING, W.Va. (AP) — Negro youths broke shop windows at four department stores while city firemen battled a fire near the Negro section of town.

At first the fire, which broke out Saturday night, was thought to be the result of a firebomb, but firemen said there was no evidence to support it.

Fire damage to Louis' Restaurant No. 2 was estimated at $20,000. Damage from the vandalism was estimated at about $1,000.

THIS ECONOMICAL, easy-to-frame, two-bedroom home has living room and master bedroom facing the street while the kitchen-dining room and bedroom face the back. The 19 by 11 living room has a three-foot-wide fireplace centered along the end wall and a six-foot arch leading to the dining alcove. A coat closet is handy to the front door. Each bedroom has cross-ventilation. A linen closet is adjacent to the bathroom, with a small linen closet inside the bathroom. There is a full basement and a fireplace may be put there, under the living room fireplace. Laundry equipment is under the bathroom. A garage or carport can be added. Plan HA 556R is designed by Jan Reiner, 1000 52nd Street North. St. Petersburg, Fla. It contains 864 square feet.

Suggestions Are Given In Bleaching Of Wood

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

The bleaching of wood came into its own some years ago when so-called blond furniture first became popular.

But there is evidence that wood bleaching was utilized centuries ago by professional wood finishers for an entirely different purpose — as a preparation for making wood darker.

This old-time theory, which still has many adherents today, is that wood will take a stain better if it is first made as light as possible. In fact, many of the novelty finishes of recent years are achieved after the wood has been bleached.

ANYONE who has ever done much wood finishing has had the experience of removing paint or varnish from an old piece of furniture only to find that some of the old finish remains imbedded in the wood.

This is especially true when a dark stain had been used, either when the furniture was made or at some later time. Sanding or steel wooling is useless in such a case if the stain is too deep.

Bleaching then is often the answer, provided that the remaining stain is not too dark, which it usually isn't if a good varnish remover has been used.

While it is possible to get good results from a home-made bleach, a commercial bleach usually will work better, since it is scientifically prepared by experts.

Bleaches vary somewhat in content, making it very important that the instructions on the container be followed to the letter. Especially vital is the necessity of wiping off the bleach residue with whatever solution is recommended by the manufacturer.

A BLEACH is a strong chemical solution. Therefore, no bleaching project should be attempted unless you wear rubber gloves and work cautiously. Incidentally, if the furniture piece has any hardware on it, be sure to remove it ahead of time.

Bleaching usually raises the grain of the wood. Therefore, about 24 hours after the bleach has been used, sand the wood lightly with a fine grade of paper, no matter how much the wood previously was sanded. If a stain is to be used, it should be given a light coat of sealer before the final finish is applied.

Some of the newer finishes on the market are designed to do away with bleaching. While pigmented, they allow the natural grain of the wood to show through. Should you decide to try one of them, read the label first to determine whether they will produce the kind of effect you want, as some work well only on light woods.

Police To Quiz Youth In Slaying At Sharon

FARRELL, Pa .A(P) — Police were planning to question a 17-year-old city youth in the shooting of a man outside a tavern.

The boy was admitted Saturday to the Shenago Valley Osteopathic Hospital for treatment of a knife cut of the throat.

The Mercer County coroner ruled that Frank Wilhams, 20, of Farrell died of a bullet wound in the upper chest.

Are You Happy With Situation At The Cottage?

Are you satisfied with your summer cottage?

Lining the interior walls, if the studs are exposed, is a step in the improvement of your property. And you probably will want to insulate, too.

Before jumping into a helter-skelter plan of fix-up, however, consider the future of your property, the experts suggest.

With highways getting better and air transportation improving, can the cabin be used more frequently—for long weekends, for rentals when not being used by the family, or (consider this seriously) a year - around residence?

In any event, it's wise to plan carefully and make worthwhile improvements that will serve the family, renters, a purchaser or a latter-year retirement group.

A good place to start, whether this a short-range or long-range improvement, is the walls, as they set the general tone of the home.

Wheels Lighten The Load

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The wheel may be man's first great invention, but it's surprising how many modern men wrench their backs, pull muscles or worse because they fail to use this ancient device.

If you (or your wife) are in the habit of moving furniture, then make certain those heavy pieces are equipped with casters.

If you are of a type that doesn't need casters permanently attached (who wants them on sofas?), then get yourself some wheels that can be used temporarily. You can pick up a good set of three-wheel caster dollies fairly cheap. A triangular - shaped metal plate with a dip in the middle has a wheel on each corner. The whole thing is low enough, about 1½ inches at center, so that you can slip it easily under heavy objects.

NEXT TIME you have to move a stove or refrigerator or chest of drawers around you will appreciate having them.

Casters generally are not what they used to be. They're not the squeaky things you remember as a kid. The modern ones are available in hundreds of types and most of them have a sleek, new look.

Not only is there the familiar wheel, there also is the ball caster, literally a full ball that revolves in a socket for a smooth ride.

You can find casters made of rubber, crystal - clear plastic and metal. There's even a slant wheel caster that looks crazy but makes sense as it rolls along quite smoothly.

If you want rigidity and mobility, there are locking casters. Use these for a power tool stand which you want absolutely rigid when you are working.

CASTERS can be mounted in a variety of ways. Some mount in sockets. Others have flat plates. Some can go on pipe or tubing.

The steam caster is quite familiar. Use this type on anything with slender legs. Drill a hole long enough for the stem, insert a metal socket and then slip the stem in. Always use a metal socket. It is more durable and the caster can be pulled out and another put in its place quickly.

You can get special sockets consisting of a socket with a metal plate. Use this type on the inside of the wood facing around the bottom of a chest. Some plates are flat, others can be had that fit in a corner.

There are threaded casters, too. Some come with a lag screw stem. Others have a bolt head that will take a nut. The lag screw stem can be run into a leg too thin to take a socket. The nut and bolt can be used on thin, flat stock.

Aside from permanent casters and that set of caster dollies, take advantage of other wheels in moving heavy objects.

THE ORDINARY two - wheel hand truck, used in garages, warehouses and stores, is a handy thing to have around the house. There are light weight jobs available for home use. Slide the platform under the object, lean back slightly and you are on your way.

Learn to improvise. A child's coaster wagon can be helpful in moving loads. Children's roller skates can double as caster dollies.

Do you own a wheelbarrow? If you have much yard work you should. Get one with a rubber tire and with a pan big enough so that you don't have to make so many runs with it.

Got some heavy object to move over a stretch of ground and nothing to move it with? Four or five pieces of pipe might do. Put the object on most of the pipes, roll it, pulling the rear pipes out and moving them to the front.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Repairing to a men's club to escape the world and womenfolk has been English tradition for 250 years. Formed for social, literary or political reasons, clubs conferred status on members because of their exclusiveness. To get into the Beefsteak it was once said "You had to be related to God and a damn close relation at that." Now the less than 70 clubs also have less exclusive membership.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Below normal temperatures will prevail Tuesday through Saturday, with daily highs averaging from the 70s to lower 80s and lows mostly in the 50s and low 60s. The cool weather will be broken only by brief warming periods Wednesday and over the weekend. Precipitation will average one-half to one inch as showers about midweek and again toward the end of the week.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I clean an oil mop?

A. — You can perform a good job with hot soapsuds in which a little ammonia has been added. Or, soak the mop in soda water, then wash in hot suds. Rinse well, and shake occasionally while it is drying. To apply fresh oil, pour polish into a shallow pan, and allow the mop to stand in this until it is absorbed.

Q. — How can I produce a quick adhesive for postage stamps or envelopes that have lost their mucilage?

A. — A drop or two of egg white or some evaporated milk will serve nicely.

Q. — How can I protect the backs of mirrors from scratches?

A. — By coating these backs with clear shellac.

Q. — What can I do about plastic curtains that have become badly wrinkled after washing and drying?

A. — Lay the curtains on a smooth surface, such as a table or the floor, and cover them with magazines. Leave them this way overnight or a little longer, and they will usually look as though thy had been ironed — which is an advantage, since plastic cannot be ironed.

Q. — How can I remove a cork that is tightly stuck in a bottle?

Fitting Of Roller Shade Often Presents Problem

By DOUGLAS TUOMEY

Although Venetian blinds are growing in popularity, there are still many houses equipped with roller shades. As a matter of fact, many people prefer the rollers because they require far less cleaning and are not as dust - catching as the Venetians.

Installing new shades often presents a problem, since there is not much room to play with as far as measurements go. And if the roller is a fraction of an inch too long or too short, trouble is in the offing.

This generally happens when the home owner has taken advantage of a special sale and orders the shades by mail, figuring that all the windows are exactly the same in width. In older houses they usually are not.

There are two ways of approaching any fitting job, and they both apply to the shades. If the item to be fitted into a space is too long, it can be corrected by reducing the length of the item or increasing the width of the space into which it is to fit.

Therefore, if the roller is too long, it can be cut off. If that is impossible, the trim inside the window casing can be cut out and the bearing for the roller set back into the recess. If the roller is too short, a small block or shim can be tacked to the trim. These are both simple corrections and not at all difficult to accomplish.

One more thing about window shades: Many people have trouble with shades which seem to have lost the strength to roll up properly. This is immediately cured by pulling the shade down about three - quarters of the way, then removing the roller from the hangers and rolling the shade up by hand before setting it back on the hangers. This restores full strength to the roller spring.

Large Enclosure Suggested For More Light In Basement

By DOUGLAS TUOMEY

There are two methods used in installing the windows in a house foundation.

One is to set the window in the foundation wall above the ground; the other is to install the window below grade and surround it with a small retaining wall.

As a rule this results in a very dark basement or cellar because the enclosure is too small, usually being no longer than the width of the window and 18 inches or so out from the foundation wall. The angle of light is so restricted that very little of it can get into the basement.

The solution to the average dark basement is quite obvious: a great amount of light can be funneled into the window by providing a large enclosure around the window instead of a small one.

Some people are afraid to increase the size of window enclosures on the basis that it presents too large a catch-basin for rain. This is not a fact, because no more rain will fall on the area of the enclosure than on any other portion of the grounds, and normal seepage through the non-waterproofed walls and floors of the enclosure will take care of it nicely.

Practically any home owner can build a large enclosure around the windows by using 12-inch boards, set four inches apart as forms and filled with concrete. The floor need be only two inches thick and smoothly trowled.

To further increase the light offered by a larger enclosure, it is good practice to clean the walls and apply two good, heavy coats of white paint. The reflective value of this will increase the light in the basement to an astonishing degree, and it will be well worth the additional half-hour it will take.

Wheels Lighten The Load

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The wheel may be man's first great invention, but it's surprising how many modern men wrench their backs, pull muscles or worse because they fail to use this ancient device.

If you (or your wife) are in the habit of moving furniture, then make certain those heavy pieces are equipped with casters.

If you are of a type that doesn't need casters permanently attached (who wants them on sofas?), then get yourself some wheels that can be used temporarily. You can pick up a good set of three-wheel caster dollies fairly cheap. A triangular - shaped metal plate with a dip in the middle has a wheel on each corner. The whole thing is low enough, about 1½ inches at center, so that you can slip it easily under heavy objects.

NEXT TIME you have to move a stove or refrigerator or chest of drawers around you will appreciate having them.

Casters generally are not what they used to be. They're not the squeaky things you remember as a kid. The modern ones are available in hundreds of types and most of them have a sleek, new look.

Not only is there the familiar wheel, there also is the ball caster, literally a full ball that revolves in a socket for a smooth ride.

You can find casters made of rubber, crystal - clear plastic and metal. There's even a slant wheel caster that looks crazy but makes sense as it rolls along quite smoothly.

If you want rigidity and mobility, there are locking casters. Use these for a power tool stand which you want absolutely rigid when you are working.

CASTERS can be mounted in a variety of ways. Some mount in sockets. Others have flat plates. Some can go on pipe or tubing.

The steam caster is quite familiar. Use this type on anything with slender legs. Drill a hole long enough for the stem, insert a metal socket and then slip the stem in. Always use a metal socket. It is more durable and the caster can be pulled out and another put in its place quickly.

You can get special sockets consisting of a socket with a metal plate. Use this type on the inside of the wood facing around the bottom of a chest. Some plates are flat, others can be had that fit in a corner.

There are threaded casters, too. Some come with a lag screw stem. Others have a bolt head that will take a nut. The lag screw stem can be run into a leg too thin to take a socket. The nut and bolt can be used on thin, flat stock.

Aside from permanent casters and that set of caster dollies, take advantage of other wheels in moving heavy objects.

THE ORDINARY two - wheel hand truck, used in garages, warehouses and stores, is a handy thing to have around the house. There are light weight jobs available for home use. Slide the platform under the object, lean back slightly and you are on your way.

Learn to improvise. A child's coaster wagon can be helpful in moving loads. Children's roller skates can double as caster dollies.

Do you own a wheelbarrow? If you have much yard work you should. Get one with a rubber tire and with a pan big enough so that you don't have to make so many runs with it.

Got some heavy object to move over a stretch of ground and nothing to move it with? Four or five pieces of pipe might do. Put the object on most of the pipes, roll it, pulling the rear pipes out and moving them to the front.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Repairing to a men's club to escape the world and womenfolk has been English tradition for 250 years. Formed for social, literary or political reasons, clubs conferred status on members because of their exclusiveness. To get into the Beefsteak it was once said "You had to be related to God and a damn close relation at that." Now the less than 70 clubs also have less exclusive membership.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Below normal temperatures will prevail Tuesday through Saturday, with daily highs averaging from the 70s to lower 80s and lows mostly in the 50s and low 60s. The cool weather will be broken only by brief warming periods Wednesday and over the weekend. Precipitation will average one-half to one inch as showers about midweek and again toward the end of the week.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I clean an oil mop?

A. — You can perform a good job with hot soapsuds in which a little ammonia has been added. Or, soak the mop in soda water, then wash in hot suds. Rinse well, and shake occasionally while it is drying. To apply fresh oil, pour polish into a shallow pan, and allow the mop to stand in this until it is absorbed.

Q. — How can I produce a quick adhesive for postage stamps or envelopes that have lost their mucilage?

A. — A drop or two of egg white or some evaporated milk will serve nicely.

Q. — How can I protect the backs of mirrors from scratches?

A. — By coating these backs with clear shellac.

Q. — What can I do about plastic curtains that have become badly wrinkled after washing and drying?

A. — Lay the curtains on a smooth surface, such as a table or the floor, and cover them with magazines. Leave them this way overnight or a little longer, and they will usually look as though thy had been ironed — which is an advantage, since plastic cannot be ironed.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Vidal Ready For Buckley

Playwright-novelist Gore Vidal says he's not uneasy about his coming confrontations with William F. Buckley, arch conservative and newspaper columnist, but he will stipulate at least one ground rule when they appear on ABC's roundup of the political conventions.

Hal Humphrey

"When I'm talking I want the camera on me and not on Bill's face doing all those wild expressions of his while I'm just a voice off-stage. People rarely listen while watching TV anyway. It's what they see that intrigues them," says Vidal.

-:-

THE LIBERAL VIDAL hasn't appeared on Buckley's own syndicated TV show as a guest, but he and Buckley were guests of a two-hour David Susskind talk show once, and in 1964 they faced each other on TV in an analysis of the 1964 Republican National Convention following Barry Goldwater's nomination in San Francisco.

"I saw what happened then, this business of the camera's cutting to Bill while I was talking. It's all right — if the cameraman gives me equal time while Bill talks," adds Vidal.

The Vidal-Buckley part of ABC's nightly 90-minute summary of each day's conventions is scheduled for 15 to 20 minutes. When I talked via phine to Vidal, who was still at the home he keeps in Rome ("right in back of the Pantheon"), he wasn't sure what approach Buckley and he would take.

"HOWARD K. SMITH will moderate, and I'm sure he'll look like a prince sitting between us. As for Bill and me, I expect we'll be winging it mostly. Perhaps we're to be the comic relief, which, by the way, is a lot easier than taking these things seriously.

"I believe ABC is smart in not covering the conventions gavel-to-gavel, because for the most part they're a bore except to a political animal like me. Someday the politicians will have to stay away from all this ceremonial guff. There's a whole new constituency and they will change things."

-:-

VIDAL would like to see Sen. Eugene McCarthy get the Democratic nomination, but doesn't see how he can.

"His views must be recognized in the party platform, though, or this country will split to pieces. Maybe it will be time to start a third party," Vidal says.

Statements like these, if he makes them in front of Buckley, are bound to elicit sharp replies from Vidal's adversary. Vidal says he can't recall Buckley and him ever agreeing on anything.

"Bill did write a column complimenting me on a piece I did in Esquire magazine on the Kennedys, and this disturbed me," he says.

VIDAL expresses the hope that security provisions at the conventions are especially good because, he says, for the first time in his life (he's 42) he has a fear of physical danger to himself.

"I get more threatening mail each day, and from reading it I wonder that there isn't more violence in our country than there is.

"You know, of course, that one of every five people in the United States is mentally disturbed. I just hope the blacks cool it the next few weeks. If something should happen before the Republican convention, we'd get Reagan, and a TV performer as good as he is couldn't be beaten," states Vidal.

Until drama disappeared from TV, Vidal wrote several plays for the medium ("Visit to a Small Planet"), and has said he would write one for "CBS Playhouse" this season "maybe between conventions").

HE'LL SOON BE in California to adapt his best-selling novel, "Myra Breckinridge," for the movies. Some years ago he ran for Congress from New York but was beaten. Now he says he's too old for the House, when asked about his political career.

"I was flattered recently when a Canadian correspondent for London's New Statesman wrote that when the Canadians elected Pierre Elliott Trudeau their prime minister, it was the same as if Americans had elected Gore Vidal."

If Buckley reads this, he surely won't overlook making a comment when the two meet in Miami next week.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Vidal Ready For Buckley

Playwright-novelist Gore Vidal says he's not uneasy about his coming confrontations with William F. Buckley, arch conservative and newspaper columnist, but he will stipulate at least one ground rule when they appear on ABC's roundup of the political conventions.

Hal Humphrey

"When I'm talking I want the camera on me and not on Bill's face doing all those wild expressions of his while I'm just a voice off-stage. People rarely listen while watching TV anyway. It's what they see that intrigues them," says Vidal.

-:-

THE LIBERAL VIDAL hasn't appeared on Buckley's own syndicated TV show as a guest, but he and Buckley were guests of a two-hour David Susskind talk show once, and in 1964 they faced each other on TV in an analysis of the 1964 Republican National Convention following Barry Goldwater's nomination in San Francisco.

"I saw what happened then, this business of the camera's cutting to Bill while I was talking. It's all right — if the cameraman gives me equal time while Bill talks," adds Vidal.

The Vidal-Buckley part of ABC's nightly 90-minute summary of each day's conventions is scheduled for 15 to 20 minutes. When I talked via phine to Vidal, who was still at the home he keeps in Rome ("right in back of the Pantheon"), he wasn't sure what approach Buckley and he would take.

"HOWARD K. SMITH will moderate, and I'm sure he'll look like a prince sitting between us. As for Bill and me, I expect we'll be winging it mostly. Perhaps we're to be the comic relief, which, by the way, is a lot easier than taking these things seriously.

"I believe ABC is smart in not covering the conventions gavel-to-gavel, because for the most part they're a bore except to a political animal like me. Someday the politicians will have to stay away from all this ceremonial guff. There's a whole new constituency and they will change things."

-:-

VIDAL would like to see Sen. Eugene McCarthy get the Democratic nomination, but doesn't see how he can.

"His views must be recognized in the party platform, though, or this country will split to pieces. Maybe it will be time to start a third party," Vidal says.

Statements like these, if he makes them in front of Buckley, are bound to elicit sharp replies from Vidal's adversary. Vidal says he can't recall Buckley and him ever agreeing on anything.

"Bill did write a column complimenting me on a piece I did in Esquire magazine on the Kennedys, and this disturbed me," he says.

VIDAL expresses the hope that security provisions at the conventions are especially good because, he says, for the first time in his life (he's 42) he has a fear of physical danger to himself.

"I get more threatening mail each day, and from reading it I wonder that there isn't more violence in our country than there is.

"You know, of course, that one of every five people in the United States is mentally disturbed. I just hope the blacks cool it the next few weeks. If something should happen before the Republican convention, we'd get Reagan, and a TV performer as good as he is couldn't be beaten," states Vidal.

Until drama disappeared from TV, Vidal wrote several plays for the medium ("Visit to a Small Planet"), and has said he would write one for "CBS Playhouse" this season ("maybe between conventions").

HE'LL SOON BE in California to adapt his best-selling novel, "Myra Breckinridge," for the movies. Some years ago he ran for Congress from New York but was beaten. Now he says he's too old for the House, when asked about his political career.

"I was flattered recently when a Canadian correspondent for London's New Statesman wrote that when the Canadians elected Pierre Elliott Trudeau their prime minister, it was the same as if Americans had elected Gore Vidal."

If Buckley reads this, he surely won't overlook making a comment when the two meet in Miami next week.

GRAVELY®

Come see the great new GRAVELY 424
IT'LL BE LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT!

Love that power! One look tells you—this is the compact tractor you've been looking for. That 10 HP engine is mounted in the back for ground-hugging, full-power traction.

Instant control. Move from forward to neutral to reverse without clutching. Pick your own ground speed to suit the job.

Love that all-gear drive! The Gravely 424 drive is all-gear-and-steel shaft . . . puts the power where the action is, into the attachments doing the job. There are no belts to slip or break . . . it's gear and steel all the way.

Love those attachments! Easy on. Easy off. Attachments mount quickly down under, up front, or behind. You're in command of any job . . . mowing, snow clearing, gardening and dozens more!

So easy to own! Come in and let's talk terms.

Junior Editors Quiz on WINDS

QUESTION: Where do winds come from and why are they so gusty at times?

* * *

ANSWER: When air is warmed by heat radiated from sea or land, it expands, becoming lighter and rising. At the same time, heavier, colder air is flowing down to replace it. This circulation or movement of air causes wind. Wind varies in direction and strength for many reasons, such as the uneven heating of earth and sea and the earth's rotation. Wind gusts come partly from this uneven heating but can also be caused by the various obstacles on the earth's surface which interrupt the flow of wind. The upper right diagram shows air suddenly forced up one side of a mountain, then blowing down in irregular gusts on the other. A bit of plowed land is also shown, which heats up more quickly than the forest next to it, helping to make gusts by uneven heating. Although gusty shore winds will often blow over land waters, such as lakes, the wind's force and direction will tend to be more steady when one gets out to sea away from the land. This is because the sea tends to heat up or cool down evenly over large areas.
